

About People You Know!

EDITED BY EDWINA JAMES

Coming here to spend a month in the Convalescent home, Mrs. M. L. Johnson arrived in Ashland a few days ago from Klamath Falls, her home.

Word was received here recently of the resignation from the state police force of Keith Ambrose, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Ambrose of 502 Fairview, Ashland. Recuperating from an automobile accident last October when his car struck a cow on the highway, Ambrose had been offered his former job as fire chief of Klamath Falls, and accepted last month. Ambrose was one of Oregon state police' most popular officers, and was stationed in Medford during political excitement of two years ago. He has been a resident of Klamath Falls since the advent of the first train there.

The Zulema Temple No. 13, Daughters of the Nile, met Tuesday, January 29, in a special session. In the dining room of the Masonic Temple luncheon was served for 90 at 12:30 o'clock.

The dining room was decorated with daffodils, sweet peas and smilax, which combined with pastel candle shades, made a beautiful setting. The tables were arranged to form a square where, in the center, Mrs. Margaret Whittle, hostess for the candidates, was sitting. The temple decorations were done in Oriental style, with beautiful Chinese rugs and pampas grasses arranged in attractive ways.

Five candidates became Daughters of the Nile at this time, the Misses Grace Holmes and Laura Young of Medford, Rosa Franco, daughter of the queen, Mrs. Lulu B. Franco, and Betty Dean of Ashland, and Gladys Suits of Lakeview.

Miss Dorothy Reynolds presented the high school sextette and the boys trio during the short recess in two groups of lovely numbers.

Next week, in Grants Pass, installation of officers will take place at 7:00 at the fairgrounds, preceded by an afternoon of entertainment, and followed by a grand ball.

We should like to take this opportunity to offer our congratulations to the high school debate team, George Hall, Della Willard, Kathryn Doyle, and Phyllis Sparr in their recent victories over their opponents. The first two, who incidentally worked together last year under the excellent coaching of Rolla Reedy, took the affirmative side of the argument and won it. The others won the negative question, both over Crescent City. We wish you the same luck you have had in the past when you go to meet Klamath Falls.

Misses Marietta Whitney and Nancy Gill returned home Friday for the week-end from Portland with Mr. and Mrs. Don Whitney, who had been visiting in Portland since the middle of last week. They returned home on Sunday evening.

Mrs. E. F. Starr spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. G. Hunter of Third street, returning to Grants Pass Sunday morning.

Mrs. K. Fred Wolcott and baby daughter arrived in Ashland recently to spend several days with her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. William Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Curtright, who have been staying at the Lithia hotel for the past two and a half months, recently returned to their home in San Luis Obispo. They may decide to make their home in Ashland at some future date.

Mrs. C. W. Fortmiller and Mrs. C. A. Haines were co-hostesses at a dessert bridge, given at the home of Mrs. Fortmiller. The rooms were attractively decorated in sweet peas of pastel shades. Playing at the four tables were the following guests: Mesdames Harvey A. Woods, Edwin Dunn, Frank Dean, Roy Frazier, Dom Provost, W. E. Bartlett, Gerald Wenner, Rilling Schuerman, H. G. Enders, W. M. Walls, Claire Tufts, Mrs. Archibald, and the hostesses, Mrs. Fortmiller and Mrs. Haines. High score award went to Mrs. Dom Provost, second high to Mrs. Willard Grubb.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Cooper returned Monday night from a visit to Los Angeles.

Rev. S. W. Hall, pastor of the First Methodist church, left for Portland and Salem Wednesday morning. He expects to be in McMinnville Wednesday night. Rev. Hall is scheduled to give an address before the student body of Willamette university Thursday morning. Friday he is to be in Portland in attendance at the mid-year meeting of the board of trustees of the university, of which he is a member. The new president, Dr. Bruce R. Baxter, will give his first mid-year report, together with recommendations for the future policy of the school.

Miss Virginia, King of Palm avenue, Ashland, spent the week-end with Miss Leafa Bedford of Medford, returning home late Sunday afternoon.

Lois Crawford and family, of Tule lake, were spending several days with relatives at Talent this week.

C. A. Crit Tolman and his aunt, Mrs. D. E. Wright, who have been house guests of Mrs. L. A. Phillips, left recently for the south by motor to visit friends and relatives in San Francisco, Sacramento and San Diego with Mr. Tolman's brother, Chester Tolman.

Mrs. C. R. D. Jones and daughter, Mrs. Elwood Hedburg, returned to Ashland Wednesday from the Saint Francis hospital in San Francisco where she has been much improved by treatments which she received there.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Butler and Mr. and Mrs. D. Perozzi spent the week-end on the coast at Brookings, returning to Ashland Monday.

Rev. Sydney W. Hall left Wednesday morning for Salem where he is to address the Willamette university student body on "Youth Getting Ready for Tomorrow." He will go from Salem to McMinnville Thursday on business, and on Friday he will visit Portland to attend the semi-annual meeting of the board of trustees of Willamette. He will return home Saturday.

Mrs. Gordon MacCracken and Mrs. T. D. Wagner entertained Saturday evening at a dessert bridge at Mrs. Wagner's home. There were four tables in play. Mrs. Hal McNair received the ladies' award, Mr. I. E. Vining the men's award, and Mrs. A. E. Kinney, the door prize.

The Junior-Senior P-TA benefit dinner given Friday, February 1, was pronounced a general success, financially because Mrs. A. C. Joy made the report that $46.50 was made, and altogether everyone seemed to enjoy themselves. The P-TA is greatly gratified, especially by the number, 170, of people who were present. The Mesdames A. C. Joy, Murray Murphy, Hal McNair, R. L. Burdick, C. L. Bergstrom, Fred Hitchcock, Charles Forsythe and many others who helped on committees wish to express their thanks for the support they received.

Lawrence Hubert, well known violinist, will present nearly 30 violin students Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Lithia hotel. This program will be of extreme interest to local music lovers and parents of Ashland. The pupils represent nearly every degree of proficiency and range in age from youngsters just starting school to violinists at advanced stages. The public is invited to attend. No flower presentation will be held as in past recitals.

The program will be as follows: Golden Rod, Harvey, Mouryne Burton.

Carey Williams of Georgia is getting out a dandy column since he lost his appendix. Olin Miller would do well to establish credit with a Thomaston surgeon.—Weston (Oregon) Leader.

A new "sound microscope" is capable of amplifying sound ten thousand billion times. We shudder to think that one of those Long speeches might carry to Oregon.—Weston Leader.

If the gold clause is restored, G. Howe Harduppe says his creditors will lose the difference between what they can't get then and what they couldn't get before.—Weston Leader.

"Drunken drivers must go," says the Saturday Evening Post. But wouldn't it be better if they didn't?—Weston Leader.

Roger Babson says American farmers are on the way to recovery, which may be news to those in this balltwick.—Weston Leader.
