

Bellview Grange To Give Dance Feb. 15

Leaders of the Bellview Grange attended a meeting of the county Grange council at Central Point this week, which was attended by masters, lecturers, secretaries and chairmen of home economics and agriculture and marketing committees of all Granges of the county.

Plans for another popular Bellview dance to be given February 15 were made at the Grange meet Tuesday evening. Mrs. Val Inlow, Mrs. Wren Newhouse, Mrs. J. E. Gowland and George Helms will be in charge of collecting and serving and Aileen Inlow and G. Edwin Dunn are members of the door committee.

Hospitality committee members for the next meeting are Mrs. Alice Pangel, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Pankey, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stenrud, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Wallis and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wallis.

FINAL RITES FOR PIONEER

Final rites were held Wednesday for Mrs. Louisa Ray, one of the oldest pioneers of the Applegate, whose death occurred Monday, following a brief illness due to paralysis. Services were conducted at Perl's funeral home in Medford at 2 p.m., Rev. R. S. Peterson officiating, with interment in the Jacksonville cemetery.

Mrs. Ray, who reached her 88th birthday a few days before her death, had possessed good health until her recent illness, and enjoyed the privilege last June of formally opening to traffic the pioneer bridge at the Applegate store when the dedication ceremonies were held. She was born in Illinois and crossed the plains with her parents in 1853, her family settling in the Willamette valley. Nineteen years later Mrs. Ray came to the Applegate, having married William Ray in Jacksonville in 1872. She has lived on the Applegate since. She is survived by a daughter, Miss Mollie Ray, and three sons, William, Robert and Mathew, all of Ruch, as well as a number of grandchildren.

Applegate Graders Form Basketball 5

The Applegate grade school organized a basketball team a few days ago, which is a remarkable addition to the wide variety of enterprises assumed by Mr. and Mrs. William Ludwig and their pupils. The five includes William Clute, center; Robert Brown and Chester Lind, guards; Harold Perry and Elwood Roberts, forwards. Subs are Ralph Perry, Keith Mee and Lester St. Johns. The youngsters were scheduled to play Murphy grade school last night.

The 4-H club work launched last fall is progressing nicely, leaders say. Girls working in the sewing project under Mrs. Ludwig have completed lunch cloths, and will start zipper purses soon. The proper cooking of cereal and toast and other dishes has also been accomplished by the girls under the leadership of Mrs. Frank Knutzen. Boys in the camp cookery project have made two trips in the woods with their leader, Mr. Ludwig, who also is getting fine results in the manual training and tap dancing classes. Funds obtained from the adult class in tap dancing, which is taught by Mr. Ludwig, supplied hot lunches for the school children during the winter.

In addition to these varied activities, pupils are submitting the school grounds to a spring cleaning, which has resulted in a vast improvement.

FIRST METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

"The Church With A Friendly Welcome"

If you have no church home you are cordially invited to attend the following services next Lord's day:

Sunday school at 9:45 a.m. A class and teacher for every age group. Our textbook is the Holy Bible. This is our guide to life eternal.

Junior church at 11 a.m. Your children will enjoy and profit by taking part in this service.

Divine worship in the main auditorium. Pipe organ music. Chorus choir. Good congregational singing. Vital message from God's word.

Vesper services at 5 o'clock. Brief organ recital. Good song service. Brief message. We shall join with our Baptist friends for the 7:30 service.

Young peoples' meetings at 6:15 p.m. Two groups, Live, vital topics. Free discussion. Bring your young friends with you.

The New Deal will hereafter be known as the New Order: which reminds us that the rose by any other name would smell as sweet.—Weston Leader.

It seems to be necessary now and then for Japan to fight China for peace—a piece at a time.—Weston Leader.

A doctor says the bite of a rattlesnake will cure mild forms of insanity. Olin Miller would need treatment from a den.—Weston Leader.

Personal News Notes

Both from JACKSONVILLE and OVER the HILL

● Mrs. Sarah Bebb of Medford spent Sunday on Applegate as a guest of Mrs. Jessie Kinsman.

● Master Tommy Fish of Phoenix is spending the week here with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Brown.

● Mrs. May Paul, resident of Thompson creek, expected to leave Wednesday for Oakland, Calif., where she will remain for some time visiting.

● Mrs. A. L. Anstead, accompanied by her small grandson, Curtis Ludwig, of Ashland, is spending the week on Applegate with her daughter, Mrs. William Ludwig. Curtis is suffering the discomfort of a broken arm which he sustained recently at Ashland while playing with other children. Others among the tiny folk who have met with unpleasanties recently are LeRoy Offenbacher, who fell while playing, cutting a gash above his eye, and Raymond and Patsy Young of Big Applegate, who have suffered severe colds.

● Lee Port Jr., Ashland high school graduate attending Oregon State college, spent the week-end at his Applegate home, having motored south with friends.

● Mrs. Osabel Perry of Murphy vicinity is spending a few weeks at Phoenix as a guest of Mrs. Fred Powers.

● Miss Thelma McKinney of Thompson creek, accompanied by her fiancé, Walter Bubenick of Sacramento, left Saturday for the California city, where their wedding will be an event of March 9. Shortly before her departure, Miss McKinney was complimented with a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Tom Mee, where an enjoyable social afternoon was spent. The Valentine motif, displaying a color scheme of pink, was carried out both in refreshments and table decorations. Guests included Miss McKinney and her mother, Mrs. James McKinney, Mrs. Frank Knutzen, Mrs. Harry Brown, Mrs. Nella Ridings, Mrs. Don Cunningham, Margaret Mee and Mrs. Warren Mee. Miss McKinney is a former student of Jacksonville high school, having graduated at Sacramento last year. The couple expect to make their home in Sacramento, where Mr. Bubenick is employed by the Southern Pacific.

● Fred Straube, rancher of the Big Applegate, is ill at his home this week.

● Mr. and Mrs. Fred Offenbacher entertained as guests Sunday their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Hale Wheeler, Miss Lucille Littrel, and William Murray of Medford.

● Miss Enid Funk of Medford spent the week-end on Applegate as a guest of her sister, Mrs. A. N. Krause. Miss Funk also enjoyed a visit to Camp Applegate while in the community.

● Mrs. Hugh Brown was hostess at her home at Murphy Saturday evening to the group of whist players of the lower Applegate. Prizes for high score went to Mrs. Chester Kubli and Edward Kubli, consolation going to Mr. and Mrs. Gene Mee. Five tables were in play.

● Mr. and Mrs. Don Cunningham of Medford are residents of the Applegate at the present, expecting to remain for several months with Mrs. Cunningham's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Mee.

● Mrs. Lee Port went to Ashland Tuesday to be with her daughter, Francis, who is ill with influenza.

● Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Lewis of Prospect spent the week-end with Thompson creek relatives.

● Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Kleinhammer attended the Presbyterian church services in Jacksonville Sunday, motoring on to Ashland, where they were guests of their daughter, Mrs. Clyde Young. They were accompanied by Mrs. Glenn Saltmarsh, who spent the afternoon with relatives at Talent.

● Miss Ossie Barren, well known cattle owner residing south of Ashland, was a recent business visitor in the Applegate district.

● Mr. and Mrs. William Kinsman of Thompson creek are the proud owners of a pair of peacocks which they purchased from E. J. Brown of this community. Friends say that they will keep the fowls in their front yard. Mr. Brown possesses six of the birds which have their freedom about the ranch.

● Guests Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Fred Benedict included the following relatives: Mrs. Carolyn Winetrot and Mrs. Clarence Winetrot and daughter Jaquelin of Grants Pass and Mrs. Carl Winetrot and daughter Marilyn and Mrs. Bert Kenyon of Klamath Falls. Mrs. Carl Winetrot is leaving soon for Redding to join her husband, who has opened a Ford agency there.

● In addition to the Applegate-Murphy grade school basketball games scheduled last night at Applegate hall, two other games had been arranged. The Community and Grange teams were to play return games with the Grange and Community quints from Murphy. Late last week the local Grangers were defeated by the neighboring five 18-21, while the game between the two community teams resulted in a score of 35-27 in favor of the locals.

● "The Sluce Box," lively bi-weekly newspaper edited at Camp Applegate, has the following to say concerning CCC work in the community: Under the able supervision of the forest service, the Hutton guard station is rapidly changing to one of the most beautiful spots surrounding the camp. It is the aim of the forest service to make a tourist park out of this property. In the very near future benches and tables will be built, pipe lines installed, roads constructed and shrubbery planted. When this work is finished it is quite sure to reflect favorably on those who have labored toward its completion. A 70-foot span will be built on the middle fork of the Applegate about four miles up the road from the junction with the Applegate road. It is to be built in the near future and will be of rustic design.

● Two minor fires occurred on the Little Applegate during the last week. A small unoccupied cabin belonging to John Meader burned, as did the smoke house and winter meat supply at the P. D. Scott ranch.

● Because little girls delight in showing and comparing their Christmas dolls, Mrs. Ethel Ludwig, lower grade teacher at the Applegate school, permitted a doll show during the language period Friday. Thirty-seven dolls of various types and colors were displayed that day. A doll show also was held in the school last year.

● An exceptionally fine project meeting on bread making was given in the Applegate Home Extension unit Tuesday, with Mrs. Warren Mee and Mrs. Charles Mee, the local leaders demonstrating. Seventeen members were in attendance with two visitors present, Mrs. Francis Krouse and Mrs. Drake. Mrs. A. N. Krouse, unit chairman, will leave Monday for Corvallis, going as a unit delegate to the Home Interests conference being held there February 12-16. Three other members also plan to attend the conference.
