

About People You Know!

EDITED BY EDWINA JAMES

● Miss Mary Magoon left for Seattle Thursday to attend a meeting of the northwest association of physical training teachers, held on Friday and Saturday. While in Seattle, Miss Magoon visited at her home with relatives.

● At Thursday's meeting of the Elks Ladies' Card club, Mrs. E. C. Gardner and Mrs. O. Penland were hostesses to eight tables of auction and contract bridge. Decorations and refreshments were done in accordance with the valentine idea. Those receiving prizes were Mr. H. H. Gillette, contract, and Mrs. Parker, auction. The tournament in each is still holding high interest, and will be finished in the early part of March. A business meeting of the club in the early afternoon discussed the Elks dance to be given on the night of February 23 in the Elks ballroom.

● The social circle of Neighbors of Woodcraft were entertained on Thursday by Mrs. Roy Parr Sr. at a covered dish dinner at 12:30. Following the dinner was a short business session, presided over by Mrs. Lucille Dozier, vice president of the club. Games were played featuring Valentine and Washington's birthday. Prizes for the first game went to Mrs. Flora Morrison, high, and Mrs. Ada Gandee, second. For the second game, Mrs. Myrtle Mayberry and Mrs. Ada Gandee, high, and Mrs. Laura Abbot and Mrs. Alma Hall, low score. The afternoon was interestingly spent by 20 members of the club.

● Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Frohbach of Medford were guests at the Thomas H. Simpson home Saturday evening.

● A personal letter from Louis F. Talcott, former Ashland boy now with the band of Tom Mix circus and wild west show, states that the show will be through here, showing either at Ashland or Medford. It is one of the largest truck shows in the United States. Louis says Tom Mix takes care of his people the best of any showman in the country, according to the consensus of trouper opinion. He says that everything points to a splendid show this season.

● Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Radcliffe left Sunday for an auto trip to Portland and other northern points and expect to be away several weeks.

● Mr. and Mrs. Paul Harmsen, who have been occupying an apartment at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Barber, left Sunday for Grants Pass, where they will reside for a few months.

Mr. Harmsen is in charge of a highway construction job for E. C. Hall, contractor. Little Cozett remained with her grandparents till the folks get settled at Grants Pass.

● Henry Sheets, veteran Ashland logger, has sold his equipment and leaves this week for Portland where he expects to make his home with a sister.

● A new horticultural venture is being tried out in Ashland canyon that may mean much to this section. At least two people, John W. Lofftus and I. G. Kelts, have grafted filbert scions onto the common wild hazelnut and they report good success. Anyone living in the edge of town and having wild hazelnuts on their place might well try the experiment.

● G. D. Kelts, living up Ashland canyon, is erecting a new chicken house and will specialize in the heavy strains of poultry.

● Who is the oldest native inhabitant of Ashland? J. W. Loftus, 538 Granite street, was born over 70 years ago on the upper part of the block on which the Lithia hotel is situated. His father later built the house just north of the Jordan electric building. Let us hear from other old natives.

● J. C. Hamaker, who has been absent from work at the General Service station for the last four or five days because of illness, returned to work on Monday morning.

● Mrs. Erford Poole has returned to her school at Mapleton, following several weeks absence due to a recent appendicitis operation. Her place was filled by Mrs. Dale Burns of Ashland.

● The Girls league of the Senior high school gave another of their delightful affairs Thursday evening. This party was planned for the new girls of the school to make them more easily acquainted with the older girls. The party was presented as a valentine affair, entertainment and refreshments in harmony with the scheme.

● A business meeting was called to order by Dorothy Burns, president of the league and it was decided at this time to hold a contest by having a motto made by each girl from the words "Ashland High." The best one to be written will be used by the league in following years.

● Miss Cleone Stoner and Miss Marjorie Freeman were co-hostesses at a delightful valentine party given at Miss Freeman's home on Nutley street Thursday evening. Games and contests furnished the interesting entertainment for the evening in which the contestants scored points, the ones standing high receiving prizes. For the girls, Miss Gertrude Wenner was high point, and Oscar Silver for the boys.

● The decorations were done in the valentine idea as were the refreshments, served on a table centered by cupid's targets and pussy-willows.

Those present were Geraldine and Gertrude Wenner, Kathleen Cook, James McNair, Kenneth Harris, Everett Nance, MacKenzie Roberson, Charles Warren, Margaret Harrison, Oscar Silver and the hostesses, Marjorie Freeman and Cleone Stoner.

● Word has been received here of the marriage in Reno, Nevada, Saturday, February 16, of Wayne Hill and Miss Ruby Schultz, both of Yreka. Mr. Hill is a former Ashland boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hill, 143 Granite street, and attended school in Ashland. He is in the grocery business in Yreka with his father. The young couple will reside in Yreka.

● Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hill, 143 Granite street, expect to leave about the middle of March on an extended automobile trip. They will go to Miami, Florida, and thence to Washington, D.C., and later visit in Virginia. They expect to be absent about three months.

● Miss Arnold Cummins, formerly Miss Jeanette McCaw, returned to her home in Silverton, Oregon, after spending 10 days with her sister, Mrs. Marcella Scribner, and friends.

● Miss Audra Wagner was able to return to her class at the Washington school Wednesday after having been absent since last Friday with the flu.

● The WHMS of the Methodist church had as its guests Monday Miss Helen Johnson, deaconess of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Mrs. Goodall of Medford, a former deaconess. Luncheon was served at 12, Mrs. E. T. Newbry in charge, with the assistance of Mrs. Don Faber and Miss Mary Mack.

Mrs. F. L. Nutter, president, called the meeting to order at 2 o'clock, with Mrs. W. A. Patrick as prayer leader. Mrs. Nutter introduced Miss Johnson, speaker of the day, who told of the many changes and new developments that have taken place in the great work which the WHMS is carrying on. She told also of the improvements that have been made in the schools and settlement houses of the east and how, on her extensive travels throughout the east she had seen great progress made in all divisions of this noble work.

A new organization was formed under the name of Queen Esther, which will hold its first meeting Monday, February 25, with Mrs. Don Faber and Mrs. Wayne as counselors. Any girls from 12 to 18 years of age may attend this meeting.

● A group of friends, honoring Mrs. Ed Miller Jr., entertained at a luncheon Saturday at the home of Mrs. Millard Grubb. Following the delightful 1 o'clock luncheon, contract was played for the remainder of the afternoon. As honoree, Mrs. Miller received a lovely gift and also high score award. The guests honoring Mrs. Miller were Mesdames Dom Provost, W. E. Bartlett, Harvey Woods, Millard Grubb, Elwood Hedburg, Gerald Wenner, Howard Hobson, Hubert Bentley and Clyde Young.

● Max Guiley and Lyle Reeder spent the last week at Lake o' the Woods, cutting a summer supply of ice. They are staying at the Guiley ranch for the winter.

● W. M. Poley returned to Ashland Tuesday morning with his aunt, Mrs. I. W. Thomas of Medford, from Portland where they have spent the last three weeks. Mrs. Thomas will remain at the Poley home for an indefinite stay.

● Miss Jean Claycomb, who recently underwent a major operation at the local Community hospital, returned to her home on Hillcrest Tuesday. She is progressing nicely, hoping to be back in school within the next two weeks.

● Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Platte, former residents here, returned to Ashland Wednesday from Palm Springs, Calif. They have taken an apartment at 153 Granite street.

● Mr. and Mrs. D. Perozzi went to San Francisco last week and, according to the Morning Oregonian, were passengers on the steamship California when it sailed from Frisco Friday for New York. The trip will be through the canal, return being on the Pennsylvania, also of the Panama Pacific line.

● Mr. and Mrs. Charles Muscat and Warren Fitch were down from their mountain home Wednesday.

● You need the Miner. It digs for the news.

● S. D. Doremus went to Klamath Falls on business Wednesday, returning yesterday. Mrs. Doremus accompanied him.

● Mrs. A. A. Madden and Mrs. E. A. Conner were at Medford Wednesday attending a club meeting.

● Mrs. R. A. Payne of Newport is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. S. L. Allen, 96 Laurel street, and with other relatives and friends.

● Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Barber and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Fraley drove to Grants Pass Thursday to visit at the home of Mrs. Paul Harmsen, daughter of the Barbars. Little Cozette Harmsen, who had been staying with her grandparents, went with them to join her parents.

● Every news item is a nugget for the Miner. Bring them in.
