

Horsepower, Horses Tangle; Hards Is Unscathed Driver

Lyal Hards, Big Applegate resident, narrowly escaped injuries early Monday morning while driving on the Jacksonville highway near Oak Grove, where three loose horses ran in front of his car, two of them being killed. Although the car was demolished, Mr. Hards escaped with minor cuts from flying glass. The horses were said to have belonged to a Medford resident.

The accident occurred about 5 a.m. as Mr. Hards was returning to Talent CCC spike camp, where he drives a caterpillar.

J'VILLE HIGH TO PRESENT GLEE CLUB OPERETTA

For the past six weeks the Jacksonville high school glee clubs under the direction of Florence Hunsaker have been working on an operetta which will be given in Jacksonville Friday night, March 1st.

"The Toreadors," the light comedy in two acts, is set in a Spanish patio. It concerns the occasion of a birthday of a wealthy Spanish farmer's twin daughters, Beneta and Juanita. The twins are in love with two sons of neighboring farmers but the father, Senor Dictorio, insists that they shall marry the two greatest toreadors of Spain. The resultant comedy, when two beggars are prompted to impersonate two famous toreadors, makes the operetta a sparkling entertainment.

Cast for The Toreadors follows: Senor Dictorio, Paul Hess. Twin daughters, Shirley Cantrell and Madeline Metzger. Sons of neighboring farmers, Wayne Martin and Frank Mee. Friends of the twins, June Wilkinson and Alice Walton. Senor Whacker, Henry Head. Senor Swateo, Bud Mitchell. A chorus of 30 will be heard, and three Spanish dancers are included in the cast.

Morris Byrne, junior, is building a Spanish garden setting while Russell Ayers has complete charge of advertising and ticket sale.

Al Parr Confers With So. Ore. Gas Officials Concerning New Gas

Al Parr, district manager of the Southern Oregon Gas corporation here, was called to the main offices in Medford last evening to confer with J. B. Brault, general manager of the company, regarding expansion plans now underway.

Those present at the meeting included district managers Al Parr of Ashland, F. A. Anderson Jr. of Grants Pass, M. R. Brown of Roseburg, Harold Wilson, service manager of Medford, "Sandy" Westergren, also of the Medford office, and officials of the company.

Interests of the company in serving each locality were discussed and plans for the future expansion program were explained fully by Manager Brault, who also took up in detail the company's plans regarding the new petroleum natural gas project.

Former Jacksonville Attorney In Address Local Townsend Fans

Judge J. A. Jeffries of Portland, former Jacksonville attorney, addressed a Townsend club meeting at the armory Tuesday evening. The audience, which filled the small hall on the second floor and overflowed into the hall and stairway, frequently applauded Judge Jeffries and laughed at his witty allusions to what he termed the paid workers against the plan.

The speaker declared that every effort so far to bring back prosperity has failed; that no one except Dr. Townsend had suggested anything except an enlargement and continuance of the plans that have failed, and declared that if anyone had a better plan than Dr. Townsend, that it was his duty to bring it forward.

RAFT, LOMBARD CO-STARRED
George Raft and Carole Lombard, the sensational stars of "Bolero," are again coming to the Lithia theater Sunday, Monday and Tuesday in "Rumba," a more lavish and startling production than their earlier success. The enthralling story of Rumba is set to the rhythmic tom-toms of Cuba's fascinating dance rhythms. The story concerns Raft, a Broadway dancer, exiled to Havana by threats of gang vengeance, who jumps into the lime-light with his revival of rumba dancing. Assisted by Margo, the lovely Mexican dancer. Falling in love with Carole Lombard, a lovely New York heiress, Raft follows her to New York. There during the threats of death from his old gang enemies, Raft appears in a Broadway revue.

The film comes to its climax as a result of the threats, his dancing partner refuses to go on in their dance. Carole Lombard comes to his aid. In a final burst of barbaric music, this pair dance a thrilling dance of death.

ENRICO CARUSO COMING Son of Famous Singer Appearing in Person on Lithia Stage

Enrico Caruso, son of the illustrious singer, Caruso, is billed to appear in person on the stage of the Lithia theater Wednesday in a special musical stage presentation. In conjunction with the motion picture, "The President Vanishes."

While at Culver military academy, his father passed away, which necessitated his return to Italy, and while there he attended to the estates left by Enrico Caruso, in the capacity of gentleman farmer. Nevertheless, the American bug had bitten him and so he returned to this country, not only to settle his father's estate here, but also to settle himself anew in soil that had proven fruitful.

Persuaded by Don Andreas de Seguroia, former basso of the Metropolitan opera—close friend of his father—"Ric" takes up singing. Years of intensive study developed him into a dramatic tenor of remarkable resonance and quality.

Warner brothers pictures, upon hearing him, have signed him under exclusive contract and his first two pictures now ready for an early release are "The Fortune Teller" and "The Singer of Naples."

Through cooperation of Warner brothers studios, the Lithia theater has the opportunity of bringing to its Ashland patrons Enrico Caruso, who will present a series of Italian, English and Spanish song numbers.
