

About People You Know!

EDITED BY EDWINA JAMES

● The Junior-Senior P.-T. A. met at the Junior high school on Friday to observe Founders Day. An interesting program, arranged by the Junior High on Washington Day was presented, following which the P.-T. A. held a business meeting in the school cafeteria. The money from the P.-T. A. benefit dinner is to be used for future welfare work. Mrs. A. C. Joy reported. Mrs. A. C. Putney urged members to write to congressmen, expressing their views on the present issues up before the house. Mrs. H. A. Stearns spoke of the history and great improvement in the P.-T. A.'s work and many helpful duties in Ashland since 1912. At the close of the meeting, tea was attractively served and a silver offering was taken for the Founders Day fund.

● Mrs. G. M. Green underwent a successful appendicitis operation Tuesday morning at the Community hospital.

● Mr. and Mrs. Harris Dean have as their guests for two weeks, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Robertson of Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada. Mr. and Mrs. Robertson have been spending some time visiting in Portland and the northern part of the state.

● Chet Wolters and Earl Isaac left Sunday morning for Rocky Point, planning to spend a few days skiing at Lake of the Woods, where both own cottages. They have been planning this trip practically all winter and at last they are free to take it.

● H. L. Claycomb went to San Francisco on Sunday night to attend a Ford dealers' meeting and an auto show of Lincolns.

● Mr. and Mrs. Ed Miller, Jr., and small daughter, left for Marshfield, Monday. Mr. Miller has a position as office-manager of the Plymouth-Dodge agency. Mr. and Mrs. Miller will be greatly missed by a large number of friends and associates.

● Miss Nancy Gill and Miss Marletta Whitney arrived in Ashland on Friday morning from Portland, to spend the week-end with their parents.

● Jack Enders arrived in Ashland Friday morning from the University of Oregon, to spend the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Enders.

● Mrs. William Myer left Friday night for San Francisco, to meet her son at the home of friends. From there they will go to New Orleans to attend the Mardi Gras, annual frolic of that city from the first to the fifth of March.

● A recent announcement of much interest was the marriage of Miss Cathryn Doyle to Mr. L. William Bates of Medford. Mrs. Bates is a senior in the local high school and expects to finish her course and graduate with her class this year. Mr. Bates is employed at the Gold Seal Creamery in Medford where the young couple expect to make their home in June. The wedding took place on Saturday, February 16, at the parsonage of the Christian church, Rev. James E. Morgan, performing the ceremony. Only the bride's parents, a few friends, and Earl Harrison of Medford, as best man, were present. These young people are very popular and are wished the best of luck by their many friends in both cities.

● Claude Clements and Marshall Barber have opened a non-denominational mission in the store room adjoining the Billings agency. Services will be held every Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Groups of young people from the various churches will be in charge of the meetings.

● Word has been received here of the marriage, shortly before Christmas of Myrtle Jensen, a niece of Walter Jensen of this city and a former resident of Ashland, to "Crips" Gregory, basketball coach of the Whitney, Neb., high school, where the bride's father, Chester A. Jensen, now resides.

● Mr. and Mrs. Paul Harmsen and daughter Cozette, of Grants Pass, visited at the W. M. Barber home Sunday. Little Cozette stayed for a longer visit.

● Ashland Elks enjoyed a fish feed Wednesday night. The 13-pound steelhead caught in the Illinois river last Friday by Sam Jordan was the crowning feature of the feast. Sam, John Hughes and Jess Smith made the trip, taking two days. They report some of the roads horrible but the sport worth going after. They had a good catch though the river was muddy.

● The regular meeting of Hillah temple, A. O. N. M. S., will be held in the Masonic temple, Ashland, this Friday evening.

● The new road from Granite street into Lithia park was completed last week and opened to travel. It leaves Granite street opposite the foot of Nutley and enters Winburn way just above the creamery. It takes the place of a road higher up that washed badly and was too steep.

● Work is well on the way to completion in grading land purchased adjoining Lithia park for the Charles Root memorial. The ground will be graded and piped for water this spring. The exact nature of the memorial has not been determined, it is said, by Judge George Dunn and G. S. Butler, trustees of the memorial fund under the will of Mr. Root, formerly a well known architect of Ashland.

● Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hartman of Rogue River were guests of Mrs. Hartman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Miller Monday and Tuesday. While here they attended the Sons-Monmouth games. They both are former Sons students.

● Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Mills were visitors in Ashland Tuesday, attending the Sons-Monmouth game. Mr. Mills is a former graduate of Sons, teaching in the Mt. Pitt school district.

● Mr. and Mrs. Ed Starr, who have been living in Grants Pass for the last four or five months, have moved back to Ashland. Mrs. Starr is the former Doris Hunter, who was married to Ed Starr last year. Their many friends and acquaintances will be glad to know of their reestablishment in Ashland.

● Clarence Smith was host Friday evening to a group of 20 young people at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Smith, near Talent. The guest enjoyed roasting their own marshmallows and weiners over the huge fireplace in the living room of the Smith home. Later the evening was spent in playing the well-planned games which were provided for the entertainment of the young people.

● Miss Edna Goheen entertained at four tables of pinocchie at her home on Palm avenue Saturday evening. High score prize for men went to Mr. Howard Gearhart, low score to Mr. Guy Crosby. High score for women to Mrs. Alice Willits, low to Mrs. Harris Rude. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Guy Crosby, Mr. and Mrs. Harris Rude, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gearhart and Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Corthell, and the Misses Iva Johnson, Golda Lewson, Beatrice Palmer and Lucille Bold, who assisted the hostesses.

● James Hopper, better known as Uncle Jim, of Glendale, Calif., is in the city this week looking after his residence properties here. Mr. Hopper formerly was interested in Ashland banks.

● Chester Y. Woods, who recently started the Richfield service station at North Main and Bush streets, reports the new venture starting off well. His pumps are the latest type and register the amount of the sale both in gallons and money in plain sight of the customers. Mr. Woods says that so far as he knows there is but one other pump of this type in Ashland, that being at the Oeser service station.

● Miss Juanita Ross, who is teaching in the Klamath Falls schools, is expected home tonight to spend the week-end with her mother, Mrs. G. B. Ross of North Main street.

● Mr. and Mrs. Tom Meamber of visit at the home of her parents, Yreka drove over Saturday to visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hill, 143 Granite street, returning home Sunday. Mrs. Meamber was formerly Miss Madeline Hill.

● Mrs. Clara Kyle of Toledo, Oregon, who was called here by the death of her sister, Mrs. A. W. Pound, returned home Monday accompanied by Mr. Pound, who will visit at Toledo for a time.

● Stock's funeral chapel was crowded Sunday morning by friends who gathered to pay honor to Mrs. A. W. Pound of the Bellview district, who passed away Thursday.

● Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Starr of Redmond, Oregon, arrived in Ashland Tuesday and took apartments at 153 Granite street.

● Mrs. Laura Rowley was the recipient of a delightful shower planned for her by a number of friends after she lost her household furnishings in the fire which destroyed her mother-in-law's home. The affair was given at the home of Mrs. William Rice who was assisted in arrangements by Mrs. Lee O. Peachey, Mrs. James Putman, and others. There were 24 guests present and many others who found it impossible to attend sent lovely gifts. These gifts consisted chiefly of linens, quilts, pillows, dishes, and other household necessities. Delicious tea and cakes were served the following guests: Mesdames William Rice and James Putman, hostesses; H. T. Mitchell, J. B. Duncan, Lee Peachey, Hattie Smith, Everett McGee, Walter Purdy, Frank Crowson, George Andrews, Esther Sullivan, Mrs. James E. Morgan, Mary Hale, J. V. Wright, C. O. Holman, M. E. Rowley, A. H. Peachey, Ed Getting, Arthur Long, Ruth Shell, J. W. Hasidms, I. J. Sawyer, Stella Anderson, and the complimented guest, Laura Rowley.

● Mr. and Mrs. Howard Riggie, relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Charles May, were guests for the week-end at the May home. Mr. and Mrs. Riggie are en route to California.

● Miss Patricia Welch was hostess at her first birthday party on Saturday, February 23, at the home of her uncle, E. L. Luck, on Van Ness avenue. Many infants' games entertained the little people during the early afternoon, followed by delicious refreshments. Patricia's guests were: Garry Crowson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Crowson, who also was one year old on Saturday; Jacqueline and Josephine Hobbs, Trema and Wesley Clark, Ethel, Virginia, Marianne, Ray, Alice, and Margaret Clary, and Stewart and Vance Petri.

● Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Platte drove to Grants Pass Thursday to spend the week end. They took little Cozette Harmsen down to join her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Harmsen.

● James Hopper of Glendale, Cal., who owns the former E. E. Phipps place on Pine street is having it shingled and otherwise put in good shape to rent.

● Mrs. Emma J. Jordan, a recent arrival in Ashland, has purchased the residence on 5th street, near D, owned by H. B. Ambrose. The deal was made through Reed Robinson.

● A pleasant surprise was given Mr. J. K. Merz at his home on Union street on February 22, in honor of his birth anniversary. Games and music furnished the evening's entertainment. The table was beautifully decorated in red, white and blue, with a large birthday cake trimmed with small flags and red candles, making an attractive centerpiece. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ottinger, Mr. and Mrs. Pollard, Mr. and Mrs. Kelson, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Betty Anderson, Mr. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. de Cathelineau, Miss Merz, and the host.
