

About People You Know!

EDITED BY EDWINA JAMES

● Among the many who went to Salem for the state tournament are W. D. Jackson, Clifford Bromley, Virgil Jackson, Leslie Brilli, Louis Pratt and Bud Etwiler.

● Mr. and Mrs. Henry Enders left for Portland Sunday. They will remain in the northern city for approximately a week.

● Ford Hunnell, student of the Southern Oregon Normal school, left for his home in Bend the latter part of the week. He will return next fall to finish his course.

● Hughes, another Sons student, and outstanding member of the frosh quint, also returned to his home in Medford Wednesday for an indefinite length of time.

● Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Hardy left for Spokane, Washington, Tuesday morning, called there by the sudden death of Mrs. Hardy's father, Mr. Jones.

● Elizabeth Martz was the delighted recipient of a surprise taffy pull party given Saturday evening for her by the Camp Fire group to which she belongs. Many amusing games completed the evening. Those present were: Caroline Sander, Dee Beatty, Jean Fridergar, Martha Gearhart, Phyllis Ann Kozier, Jeannette Burton, Nellie Lean, and Barbara Cary.

● Mr. H. B. Hurst returned for a few days stay in Ashland before going back to Benecia, Calif., to be with Mrs. Hurst, who was injured last week in an accident in which her car overturned three times. Mrs. Hurst suffered back and leg injuries but was not severely hurt.

● Mr. and Mrs. James Hersey left Ashland Thursday morning for Nevada where they will get to Boulder dam and other points of interest.

● Mrs. R. L. Burdick was hostess to members of the Ashland Study club at its regular meeting Monday, March 11. Following the short business session, Mrs. C. W. Hanson presented the book review, Hearn's translation of "The Crime of Sylvestre Bonnard," by Anatole France. "Pieces of Silver," from a National Geographic magazine, was given by Mrs. Don Whitney as the short topic.

● The young people of the Christian church had a delightful waffle feed Friday evening, followed by amusing and interesting games and entertaining stunts. There was a large number of young people present and as they enjoyed themselves so much and so often, they extend the hearty wish that more young Ashlanders join them.

● Miss Marietta Whitney of Portland spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Whitney of this city.

● Mrs. Ralph Billings entertained a few friends at a 1 o'clock luncheon Wednesday honoring her sister, Mrs. R. N. Chaney, on her birthday. As the occasion was so near St. Patrick's day, green was predominant in decorations. Visiting and needlework filled the remainder of the afternoon for the guests. Mrs. Fred Porter, Mrs. J. A. Yeo, Miss Ruth Porter, Mrs. Bruner, the honoree, Mrs. R. N. Chaney, and the hostess, Mrs. Billings, were the recipients of the enjoyable afternoon.

● Mrs. Lillian Schofield left Friday night for Burbank, Calif., to spend two or three weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Ling. Mrs. Ling is the sister of Mrs. Schofield.

● Miss Harriet Smith and Miss Irwanda Bateman, teachers at the Derby school near Butte Falls, spent the week-end with their parents in the city.

● Elliott MacCracken, teaching at present in the Talent schools, spent Friday night with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Gordon MacCracken.

● Mrs. Erford Poole spent the week-end in Ashland, returning to her school near Grants Pass Sunday evening.

● Mrs. F. M. Fillson of Tenant, California, underwent an operation at the Sacred Heart hospital in Medford Monday. Mrs. Fillson is the daughter of Mrs. S. A. Parker and the sister of W. H. Parker of Ashland. Mrs. Parker is staying at the Fillson home until her daughter is able to return.

● Mrs. B. B. Ballis and daughter, Jean Ballis, returned to Ashland Sunday from March Field, Calif., where Miss Ballis has been a guest of Lieut. and Mrs. Kenneth Hobson since the first of January. Mrs. Ballis also had been their guest for the past 10 days.

● Mrs. Roy Welch of Weed, Calif., is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Lusk of Van Ness avenue.

● The St. Patrick's day mixed given by the Douglas county club in the Sons auditorium was a success in every way. Those in charge of the evening's entertainment Miss June Irvine of Myrtle Creek, president of the club, Arthur Millard, vice president, and Dorothy Jackson of Roseburg, secretary-treasurer. Assisting them were Herbert Yocum of Myrtle Creek, Nellie Breedlove of Myrtle Creek and Alice Becker of Roseburg. Advisor of the group is Dr. A. S. Taylor and faculty members present were Dr. and Mrs. Walter Redford, Dr. Wayne Wells, Miss Florence Allen, Miss Lillian Nicholson, Mrs. Lucille Burtis and Miss Betty Hileman. Green was the color of the evening. Specialty dances were presented during intermission by three students of Miss Ruth Luy of Medford and lollypops were distributed to guests.

● Mrs. Ray Dahlin of Big Bar, Calif., came up last week for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Bullis, and her sister, Mrs. Bert Freeman. After a short visit here Mrs. Dahlin and Mrs. Freeman went to Corvallis, where they visited relatives, and to Portland, where they were guests at the home of Mr. Freeman's brother, Claud Freeman, a Portland architect.

● Mr. and Mrs. Carvel Thornton and son Jerry were Ashland visitors Sunday at the home of Mr. Thornton's father, J. Ed Thornton.

● Ashland Legion's Kiltie band is becoming in great demand. Last Friday night they were featured entertainers at the Wagner Creek school P-T. A. meeting and Wednesday night of this week they entertained Belle View Grange at its social session.

● The fire department went to the normal school Friday in an effort to lower a flag, the halyards of which had become fouled, but as the staff is of iron were unable to climb it and it is reported that the pole will have to be let down to remove the flag.

● Mayor Thornton Wiley, who is a member of the board of regents of the Northwest Nazarene college at Nampa, Idaho, home last Saturday from a trip to Nampa. He was accompanied by Mrs. Wiley, Paul Culbertson, Mrs. Ira Har and Genevieve Patterson. They also visited Misses Mary and Lois Wiley, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Thornton Wiley, who are students at the college.

● All city officials, including department heads, have been invited to attend a meeting of the League of Oregon cities, to be held in Eugene Monday and Tuesday next. Eminent speakers will be present and many matters of interest to cities will be discussed.

● Lodge room in Masonic temple was crowded Sunday afternoon by friends who paid last honors to Miss Georgie Coffee. Eastern Star funeral services were read and Rev. H. H. Mitchell officiated at the Episcopal funeral service which followed. Pallbearers were J. H. Hardy, Elwood Hedberg, Clarence Lane, Elmer Biegel, Frank Jordan and W. H. McNair. Interment was in Ashland mausoleum under the direction of J. P. Dodge and sons.
