About People You Know!

EDITED BY EDWINA JAMES

- Miss Rose Aikins, whose parents have resided in Ashland for many years, is now making a tour around the world. She is now in the vicinity of the South Sea Islands, being expected to arrive in Japan soon. Miss Aikins, an employe of a travel bureau in San Francisco, attended the Southern Oregon normal during the spring quarter of 1929.
- Bob Gilmore left for Lakeview Sunday to begin work in the lumber mill there owned by H. L. DeArmond of this city.
- Mrs. Gordon Pefley and baby son, Gordon Jr., accompanied by Austin Parsons, returned to Portland Sunday following a month's visit at the home of Mrs. Pefley's mother, Mrs. Jennie Hervey, of Mountain avenue. Mr. Parsons returned home the middle of the week.
- The mard gras festival, sponsored by the Sigma Epsilon Pi, women's scholastic society of the normal school, was pronounced successful by everyone attending. Decorations in oriental designs, in hangings, lamp shades, pagodas, and vases of cherry blossoms made appropriate and beautiful settings for a festival of the nature. Music was furnished by Al Stewart's orchestra for a grand march, serpentine and tag dances. Prizes for costumes were awarded to Beverly Young, Bob Root, Bill Cook, Beth Cummings, Olive Hill, Gretchen Movius, Jerry Latham, Audrey Lofland, Alyce Anderson and Mary Magoon. Feature numbers were presented by Beulah Heath and Tashika Takoa, accompanied by Ray Lewis at the piano.
- Mrs. Clyde Costolo entertained the members of her Embroidery club, at her home on Church street Friday afternoon. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon amid beautiful spring flowers. Those present were the Mesdames Frank Nelson, Alex Livingstone, O. W. Long, Mary Hale, Hal Emery, Phoebe Kaegl, Lillian Freelan, Mark Smith, Will Mitchell and the hostess, Mrs. Clyde Costolo.
- Mrs. Frank Fitch of the Cove district is spending the week in Ashland with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Muscutt.
- All night service at the Palace cafe in Yreka, Ashland, Medford and Grants Pass.
- Ed Coovling, brother of Mrs. Al Jordan, and well known in Ashland, had a narrow escape from drowning in Alesia bay Sunday. He and Melvin Burnett were crabbing and a wave caught the boat and whirled it around and a couple of other swells upset it. Wilson Hayes, a Waldport fisherman who was crabbing nearby, succeeded in saving Burnett and Coovling at the risk of his own life.
- The Grants Pass Masonic lodge and the Grants Pass Courier celebrated their 50th anniversaries last week. Could it be called a golden wedding?
- Mrs. F. C. Reimer of Talent is expected home this week from a short visit to her daughter, who lives in Los Angeles.
- Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Jones of Third street, returned last Thursday evening from a two months vacation in Los Angeles, Calif. While there they visited Mr. and Mrs. Thad Stevens of Tujunga, and friends in Wilmington and Redondo, their former home.
- Miss Mary App of Klamath Falls has been the guest of Miss Doris Hitchcock, of this city. Miss App has been teaching in Klamath Falls until recently, when illness compelled her to quit for a short while.
- Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Butterfield are spending two weeks as the - guests of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Peters of Marshfield, Oregon.
- Eugene Clark, student of Linfield college in McMinnville, has been spending the spring vacation at his home in Prospect, in Ashland as the guest of Ted Lockhart, and in Klamath Falls.
- Mrs. W. J. Moore returned to her home in Ashland on Friday from Los Angeles, where she has spent the past three months.
- Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Garriott, and small son, spent the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Gillette. Mrs. Garriott was formerly Marjorie Gillette.
- Mr. and Mrs. H. L. DeArmond have been spending a few days at Corvallis with their daughters, Ardis and Lovette. Ardis is the winner of the Ashland better times contest, sponsored by the merchants of Ashland.
- Up late? All night service at the Palace cafe in Yreka, Ashland, Medford and Grants Pass.
- Miss Virginia King, student of Southern Oregon Normal school, recently enjoyed a week-end at the home of Eugene Clarke's parents in Prospect, and a week at her home in Redding with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eitemiller.
- County Clerk George Carter of Medford was a visitor at the Southern Oregon Miner office last Saturday.
- Eihart now is pretty well settled in his new quarters in the Enders block. A mezzanine floor has been installed in the rear and with the room in back of the White jewelry store, it gives Eihart a fine store and display room and adequate floor space. He anticipates an increasing business in his new location.
- Ashland high school will not send its band to the state high school band concert, according to Principal B. C. Forsythe.
- Mr. and Mrs. Paul Harmsen were up from Grants Pass over the week-end to visit at the parental W. M. Barber home and meet Mrs. Harmsen's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Terry Talent, who are here from San Antonio, Texas, on a vacation trip.
- Mrs. Terry Talent, Mrs. W. M. Barber and Mrs. Phil Stansbury drove to Grants Pass Thursday to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Harmsen. Mrs. Harmsen is a daughter of Mrs. Barber and sister of Mrs. Harmsen.
- Mrs. Eugene Ritzinger and Mrs. Frank Barnhouse returned Tuesday to Ashland from Spokane, Wash., where they spent nearly a week with their father, who was seriously injured when he fell from a roof which he was repairing. Attending physicians stated that he would recover, but that he would be in the hospital for at least six weeks.
- Loren Agee left the latter part of this week for Roseburg, where he will receive medical treatment at the veterans hospital there.
- Ray Shipman is spending a few days with his father in Ashland. Shipman is a resident of Klamath Falls.
- Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Brown of Beaumont, Calif., arrived at the Ashland hotel first of the week to visit their son, Chet Brown, owner of the Ashland hotel garage and service station.
- Mrs. Hugh Gillette returned to Ashland Wednesday from San Francisco where she spent several days with her brother-in-law, George V. Gillette, who has been in the Southern Pacific hospital for some time.
- Mrs. J. M. Raiston left Monday for Roseville, Calif., to visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Crowder and baby

- son. Mrs. Raiston expects to return to Ashland the last of the week.
- A large number of people visited relief headquarters Thursday for groceries. Two cans of roast beef and two of evaporated milk and a bag of garden seeds were given each applicant.
- County Assessor J. B. Coleman was kept busy while in Ashland Wednesday afternoon making out blanks for veterans and soldiers' widows who sought exemption from taxes.
- Don't wanna go home? Then you can go straight to the Palace cafe in Ashland, Yreka, Medford and Grants Pass.
- Miss Ellen Ellis underwent a major operation at the Community hospital on Monday night, and is at present doing nicely. Miss Ellis is a teacher in the Talent schools, and her place is being filled temporarily by Mrs. H. C. Gale.
- J. F. Stewart arrived in Ashland on Monday to make his home here, after making inquiries of the Chamber of Commerce as to opportunities to be had in Ashland. Stewart is a former resident of Pomona, Calif.
- Duke Lorton, who has been employed for some little time by the Lithia hotel, left Tuesday morning for Klamath Falls, where he has accepted a position in the City Club. He will spend a few days in San Francisco before taking over his duties.
- Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Wolfe left Monday for Portland and Seattle, having been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rilling Schuerman since last Thursday. On their return trip, Mrs. Wolfe will remain as the guest of Mrs. Schuerman and other friends for a few days.
- Mrs. Roy Welch left Monday for her home in Weed, Calif., after spending several weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Lusk, of Van Ness avenue, her brother and sister-in-law.
- Miss Clara Braun, of Bismarck, N. D., left Sunday for Lodi, Calif., to visit friends. Miss Braun has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hartley and upon her return from California, will continue her visit with them.
- Robert Betzel of Dunsuirer spent the week-end with his sister, Dorothy Betzel, and his aunt, Mrs. Walter Bevington.
