Ashland Egg Hunt Draws 1000 Kiddies

Easter Sunday was duly observed in Ashland, commencing with the sunrise union prayer meeting at the First Baptist church and closing with a fine sacred concert at the Methodist church Sunday evening and services at various other churches.

The egg hunt, sponsored by the American Legion, was a success, about 1000 children taking part. The legion committee in charge consisted of Dr. D. S. Taylor, chairman, Fred Taylor and Paul Taylor, aided by other legionnaires, members of the Eagles and Modern Woodmen and Boy Scouts.

First prizes in each division were won by Lloyd Sugg, 5, Mary Avery, 9, and Richard Hastings, 11. Second prizes went to Ella Silva, 3, Allen King, 9, and Albert Wiley, 11. Albert requested that his prize be given to Melvin Paul who recently returned from the Shrine hospital.

Prizes for the best decorated eggs went to Mary Lewis and Dorothy Fridger.

Union services at the various churches are reported to have been very successful and well attended.

FREEBERG RESUME ANNUAL GLOBE TROTTER

Mr. and Mrs. Freeberg, Ashland's famous globe trotters left Wednesday morning on their regular summer outing and camping trip. They will go south into California, thence east through Yuma, Arizona, El Paso, Texas, Wichita, Kansas, Lincoln, Nebraska, and through Iowa to Wisconsin, stopping at Milwaukee for a couple of weeks. They will sleep in their car during good weather, taking refuge in camps or hotels when the weather is bad.

Freeberg stated they expect to cover about 14,000 miles this season. Before returning they will visit two daughters, one living in Aberdeen, Wash. They have in past years traveled over 250,000 miles.

The couple expect to return to Ashland next winter and many friends here have wished them a pleasant trip and safe return.

AT&T To Observe 50th Anniversary On Radio Sunday

Ted Husing, ace radio reporter; Edwin C. Hill, news commentator; Channing Pollock, author and playwright, and Andre Kostelanetz and his 50-piece orchestra augmented by a chorus, will take part in a coast-to-coast CBS radio network program this Sunday, April 28, in commemoration of the 50th anniversary of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company.

The program will be heard locally from 3 to 4 p.m., Pacific time, over Radio Stations KERC, KOIN, and KSL, according to word received by H. S. Atkins, telephone manager here.

Telephone conversations from the four corners of the United States; conversations between Husing and prominent personalities throughout the country; dramatizations of historic events in the development of telephone service and talk by Walter S. Gifford, president of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, are included among features scheduled for the program.

Scout Jamboree Tickets On Sale

The drive for funds to send two Ashland Boy Scouts to the national jamboree in Washington, D. C. next August is now well underway. All Boy Scouts are selling tickets for the local jamboree to be held at the armory May 17. Activities of Troop No. 12 will be directed by Scoutmaster Roy Clary and an adult committee consisting of Clinton Baughman, E. A. Corthell, Frank Davis and Dr. Walter Redford. Troop No. 13 is led by Orville Hall, scoutmaster, assisted by Hugh Bates, Dr. R. L. Burdick, Henry Enders, V. D. Miller and D. Peruzzi.

Tickets were issued at a scout rally Thursday evening of last week, at which Elwood Hedberg, chairman of the local scout council, presided.

Seven local organizations will present numbers on the program and the entertainment promises to be a good one.

CHURCH OF CHRIST
"A Friendly Church"
2 and B Street

In your hurry pause a moment: You are busy. Busy chasing the elusive dollar-sometimes holding it for a while, then letting it go. You are in a hurry, so much so that you have no time to think seriously of your soul life. You may say, "There is no money in that." Jesus said, "What shall it profit a man if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul"? How about that proposition? Think it over. NOW!

The church at worship, 9:45 to 10:20.

The church at preaching, 10:20 to 10:50.

The church at study, 10:50 to 11:30.

Sermon, "Christ the friend of Sinners". Special music. Junior church from 9:45 to 10:50 with a real bible study program for all children.

Christian Endeavor, 7:00.

Evening services, 8:00. Sermon "Heaven's Library". A special sermon of interest to all.

Prayer meeting Wednesday, 8:00. You are welcome at all services.

James E. Morgan, Pastor.

C. C. Robertson and family are enjoying a visit this week from his father C. H. Robertson and Charlie Robertson's niece, Nancy Nicola, both of Seattle.
