● Mrs. W. A. Ansted, her daughter, son-in-law, and small grandchildren, spent the week-end in Lakeview.

● The regular meeting of the Friday Afternoon Embroidery club was held at the home of Mrs. Hal Emery on Laurel Street.

The usual delightful embroidery and chat was enjoyed by the members during the afternoon, in the beautifully decorated room of the Emery home.

At the close of the afternoon the hostess served dainty refreshments to the following ladies: the Mesdames, Clyde Costolo, J. Edward Thornton, Mark Smith, Phoebe Kaegi, Frank Nelson, Lillian Fruhan, and O. W. Long.

● Mrs. Otto Winter returned to Ashland Friday from a five months trip to California. She enjoyed visiting relatives at many different points in the southern state.

● Charles Tilton, son of Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Tilton left for Cottage Grove Friday to begin his duties with the U. S. Geological Survey. He will join Charles Chittin local boy, who recently left for the same place to be employed in the same crew.

● Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hill, returned last Thursday from a trip to the middle west, south and east. Mr. Hill reports conditions there about the same as here and a drift in the south toward Hughely Long. They report a very pleasant and profitable trip.

● Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Frailey returned last week from a trip to Berkeley, Alameda and Los Angeles where they visited relatives. Mr. Frailey reports that his two sons, Earl and Floyd expect to come to Ashland for the summer vacation. Earl is teaching in the Alameda high school and Floyd in Berkeley high.

● Mrs. Laura A. Hill left Saturday for her home in Merrill, Ore., following a two-weeks visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Hulien. Before coming to Ashland, Mrs. Hill enjoyed a four months trip through California and Arizona.

● Mrs. Lillian Schofield returned to Ashland Sunday from a seven weeks visit through Southern California. She brought small Carlos Ling home with her to visit his grandmother, Mrs. Lillian Greer.

● Clarence Woods, student at the University of Oregon spent the week-end at the home of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Woods.

● Mr. and Mrs. Roland Parks spent the week-end with Mrs. Parks' mother, Mrs. Walter Bevington. Mr. and Mrs. Parks are teachers at Mallin, Oregon.

Through error in reporting, a news account last week confused Paul and Ned Mars, both visiting here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Mars of Ashland, early last week. The paragraph should have read "Mr. and Mrs. Ned Mars who left for Richmond, Calif.," while it was Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mars and son who left for their home in Eugene.

Mrs. J. Koch, 72, Passes Saturday

Mrs. Julius Koch, 72 died at her home on Laurel street Saturday, May 4, following a lingering illness. She was born in Tyrone, Ireland, March 14, 1863, and moved to Roseburg, Oregon, with her parents in 1872, where she later took up a homestead.

Eliza Alice Keys was married to Julius Koch at Maryville, Oregon, May 28, 1913. In 1921 she moved with her husband to Ashland. She was a member of the Mayville Rebekah lodge, the Pioneer association of Wheeler county, Medford Pythian Sisters, the Woman's Relief corps and the Past Noble Grand club of Ashland. She is survived by her husband, a step-daughter, Mrs. Jessie Linnell, and a sister, Mrs. Mary Schomp, both of Mayville.

Services were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in chapel of the Stock-Litwiller funeral home, with interment at Mountain View cemetery, with Rebekahs in charge. The Rev. M. L. Edwards officiated.

W. L. Johnson Laid To Rest at Hargadine

Last tribute was paid to William L. Johnson, 97, pioneer of Southern Oregon, by many friends in funeral services held at the Dodge chapel Sunday, May 5.

Johnson came to this section in 1860, having been born in Wayne County, Indiana, December 22, 1837 of Scotch-English descent. The gold rush of California and Oregon attracted Johnson to the coast in 1859, and in 1860 he journeyed to southern Oregon with Isaac Wagner, settling near Talent on what is now the Fred Rapp farm. He was married to Martha Abagail Russell of Portland in 1865 and to this union were born six children, four of whom survive. They are: Mrs. W. M. Howard, Medford, Oregon, W. O. Johnson, Merrill, Oregon, and Misses Etta and Effie Johnson of Ashland, Oregon.

His wife passed away May 23, 1911, and death came to William Johnson Friday, May 3 at his home on Laurel street here. Interment was in Hargadine cemetery.

SCOTT YOUTHS KILL 40 SNAKES IN RATTLER DEN
Six youths of Scott Valley, while on a snake-killing expedition last Thursday, slew 40 rattlesnakes in the course of an hour on Coyote hill, about three miles south of Etna.

The young men confined two of the snakes in glass and presented them to their high school biology instructor.

FOLLOW the FUNNIES

Here are real friends whose life's business is making you happy!

FRIENDS who never fail to make you laugh can always make you forget the painful pressure of your corns or taxes. On the Funny Page of this newspaper are a group of friends whose riotous antics shoo the blues away week after week.

FR instance, there are Gene Byrnes' "Reg'lar Fellers," as likely a band of youngsters as ever busted a schoolhouse window. Jimmie Dugan, Aggie Riley, Pudd'n'head and Pinhead, Bump Hudson and the dog Bullseye are worth a chuckle in every line.

DESPERATE Ambrose, who becomes doubly dangerous when donning his vendetta hat, Pop Wimpus and Old Timer have become national institutions in the uproarious strip, "S'Matter Pop?" by C. M. Payne. One of the wildest, craziest comics in the world, this is still as true to life as cold oatmeal or corned beef hash.

SLIGHTLY daffy, of course, are "The Featherheads," but only daffy enough to do the things that all of us do that are good for a million laughs in our daily lives. Cartoonist Osborne's funny folk also come to you every week in this paper.

AND Finney, "Finney of the Force" is the answer to the charge that nobody loves a policeman.

This genial flatfoot's humorous adventures, as portrayed by the young artist, Ted O'Loughlin, are a lot of fun for him and even more for you as you watch him walk his beat.

"MESCAL IKE" by S. L. Huntley brings you Mescal himself, Pa Piffle, Miss Sally Price, Dirty Shirt Mulloney, Muley Bates and the other salty citizens of Cactus Center. This hilarious strip has the excitement of a diamond-back's rattle, a kick like an untamed mustang and all the dry humor of a desert mule.

UNUSUAL insight into human nature and a keen sense of humor are the stock in trade of Magnus G. Kettner, who ranks among the truly great cartoonists of the day. In "Our Pet Peeve," "Along the Concrete," and his other cartoons, there is always a chuckle, often a real, constructive thought, but never a sting. Especially has Kettner caught the warm humor of small town and rural life.

Follow the doings of these friends of yours. They'll make your life gayer, your lot easier and your digestion better.
