

FASHION NOTES

All sorts of new clips for the hair are appearing.

Extreme youthfulness is the keynote of all the new clothes.

The strapless brassiere for evening wear is really quite an innovation and so practical.

The new cellophane frocks are charming as shown by Worth—so, too, are the striped surahs.

When fashions began to go girlish and to yield to the Regency influence, capes were inevitable.

At least one knitted costume should be in the wardrobe of the woman who goes about a great deal.

A combination of "cream" color and pure white is something you will be seeing in resort and summer fashions.

Tiaras, generally speaking, are out though one sees an occasional fillet on heads dressed to go with medieval clothes.

Schlaparelli uses gold frog fastenings down the front of a green dinner gown, in a manner both decorative and military.

The backs of the new hats will have a definite influence on your coiffure. Many of them have no back and simply perch high on the swirled curls of your head. Curls are larger, more swirled, and fill that space between the collar of the coat and the brim of the hat.

THROUGH A
Woman's Eyes

By JEAN NEWTON

A HUSBAND WHO BOUGHT WIFE'S CLOTHES

THERE is fresh evidence to prove that George Washington was a brave man. It appears now that he picked his wife's dresses! And that, says the history professor who makes the revelation, is proof that he was the bravest man of his day.

There is more. Not only did the first President pick his wife's dresses, but Martha liked them. And that, many a wife would say, showed Martha brave—to manage to like dresses which a man picked for her.

But that, we suggest, depends on the man. There have been husbands, you know, who not only would trouble to notice their wives' clothes, but who actually understood women's clothes. Oh, not many, I know. But they have existed. There have even been men who could—and would—go shopping with their wives, with actual benefit to the aforesaid women. Of course, they have been few and far between. But when they exist, they are the last word in business. They are all that is charming and delightful—almost more than a mere mortal woman deserves.

Imagine—to have a husband who not only notices what you wear but remarks intelligently on it. Imagine his having not only clothes intelligence, but good taste. Imagine his having sufficient interest to go with you to buy your clothes, or—miracle of miracles—to buy them for you!

Such a man, such a husband, we now for the first time find George Washington to have been. It is not too much to say that in the light of this new information about the great soldier and statesman, new history books should be written. For it is one thing to be a great general, a fine gentleman, an engineer and a literary figure, even a first President. But a husband who could choose his wife's clothes—and have her like them—well, now, indeed, George Washington stands alone in the hearts of his countrywomen.

Digestive Tract of Fishes

The digestive tract of fishes varies according to habits. Food in reaching the stomach passes over a rather ineffective tongue. The stomach in general is a simple sack-like organ in which food is partially digested before passing into the intestines.

Simplicity and Chic in Morning

PATTERN 9316

9316

It's as fresh as the morning dew! And it was designed for all those clever women who like to put in a smart appearance at the very beginning of every new day. Three or four dresses made up by this pattern would solve all your house frock problems. And the expense will prove trifling. Moreover, this pattern has been designed so simply that to follow it will seem like a first lesson in sewing. The yoke and sleeves all-in-one with a bit of bodice fullness below, and the decorative pocket make this frock very smart indeed! Percale or gingham in gay plaids or small geometric designs would be effective. Add nobby cork or wooden buttons.

Pattern 9316 may be ordered only in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42. Size 16 requires 3 1/4 yards 36-inch fabric.

SEND FIFTEEN CENTS in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this pattern. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, STYLE NUMBER and SIZE.

Complete, Diagrammed Sew Chart included.

Send your order to Sewing Circle Pattern Department, 232 West Eighteenth street, New York.

Romantic

It happened in a small grocery store, where they kept everything from a 2-foot rule to a pearl necklace. Court plaster and sausages were also sold, and if necessary, you could get a hair cut or a horse shoe in the backyard.

A farmer stopped there to get some liniment to rub the rheumatism out of a cow, and two or three days later he returned with a grievance.

"Look 'ere," he said. "I wish ye would be a little more careful how ye throw yourself about behind that counter. The other day ye gave me some Eau-de-Cologne instead of liniment, and hang if I didn't put it on the cow afore I found out what it was."

"It hasn't hurt her, has it?" broke in the grocer.

"Can't say it has," answered the farmer; "but ever since I put that sweet-smelling stuff on 'er she's done nothing but look at her reflection in the duck pond and sigh."—Exchange.
