

SILK LACES JUST NOW LEAD IN FAVOR

Late Offerings Have Delicacy of an Etching.

Women who have always had a warm spot in their hearts for a lace evening dress can once again satisfy their desires. Silk lace, once bedroom lace, is now a smart and practical choice for the silk sheers which lead the summer fashion parade. You will see silk lace on the smartest dance floors and in many fashionable daytime costumes and accessories. It may be made up in tailored or dressy styles but it always retains that femininity that is characteristic of the new silk mode.

The new silk laces appear to be of the most fragile, airy description, featuring stylized floral patterns in group treatments. But in spite of its apparent fragility, silk lace has remarkable durability. Silk is the strongest of all textile fibers, raw silk having a breaking strength equal to almost one-third of the best iron wire, and this characteristic makes it practical as well as beautiful for use in laces. It musses very little and cleans beautifully. If you do happen to catch it on something or to put your heel through it while dancing, you can be sure that it can be mended so that the tear will never be noticed.

Some of the new silk laces have the delicacy of an etching. Fine chantilly effects are much in favor. New and charming are some conventional patterns in silk lace, including big splashy whorl designs and spider-web effects in slightly stiffened textures.

Evening gowns of silk lace are the most important manifestation of the revival of laces. They are handled like fine chiffons or silk crepes, with full hemlines, and softened décolletages featuring dropped shoulder effects, shoulder ruffles and draped treatments. However, there are some new dinner gowns in silk lace which, while they are soft in silhouette, have amusing tailored touches, such as shirtwaist bodices, little round or pointed collars and front closings accented with vertical ruchings.

Sheer White Blouses and Hat Give Summery Accent

You can have a tailored suit in firmly woven cotton or in the perennially popular linen in dark shades. Wear the sheerest of white blouses with them, white fabric gloves and a white hat to give the crisp summery accent that will keep you from wilting.

Dark sheers, such as dotted swiss and chiffon weaves, are to be found in short cape-sleeve models that have the formality of the fuller skirts, and dressmaker touches treat more expensive fabrics. This is the kind of dress you can wear with your broad-brimmed straw hat for informal afternoons in town.

BUSINESS GIRLS WILL LIKE THIS

PATTERN 2230

The smart business girl has her own rules for chic—tailored feminine simplicity. And here's the frock that obeys the dictates of fashion and utility. There's a world of youthful charm in that simple collar and flattering curved yoke that cuts into a bodice with the very new "bosom and back" fullness. The paneled skirt breaks into pleats just in time to give you lots of walking freedom. Wear the sleeve puffed or flared—let your "type" be your guide. Because every smart business girl will choose this pattern and run up several in the evenings, the frock pictured has been kept especially simple. Choose a cheery flower print silk on a dark ground—or a washable pastel.

Pattern 2230 is available in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42. Size 16 takes 3 3/4 yards 39-inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Spoiled by Nursemaids

Many men and women are prevented from marrying and raising a family because as children they were "poor" little rich boys and girls cared for by nursemaids and governesses. The women entrusted by wealthy people with the care of their little children are so often ignorant of child care and emotionally uncontrolled, that their little charges develop a fear-anxiety neurosis which makes them unfit for the responsibilities of adult life, Dr. A. E. Hamilton of New York reports in Eugenic News.

"In my own experience as a consulting educator, I have a distinct classification for 'Nursemaid Children,'" Doctor Hamilton says. "They are children who show all the symptoms of growing up into the kind of men and women who often lack courage to make so important a decision as that involved in marriage and founding a family."—Kansas City Star.
