Bellview News Notes

● Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Martin and two daughters, Mildred and Louise, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Bell and family, and Miss Mamie Reed made a trip to Crater Lake Sunday. They returned by way of Diamond lake. Since none of the party had seen Crater Lake bears, they were delighted to find a mother bear with four cubs on the highway several miles from the lake.

● Mrs. J. H. Williams, who has been ill since Sunday morning, is recovering.

● Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Watkins, Crescent City, were guests at the Oscar Martin home last Friday. Mrs. Watkins will be remembered as Frances Barnes, who attended Bellview school five or six years ago.

● Henry Stenrud and George Helms spent several days of this week at Lake o' the Woods, where they were doing carpenter work.

● Marilyn Christlieb and Barbara Jean Moore returned Tuesday from the Camp Fire camp at Squaw lake, where they spent the past week.

● J. H. Williams, who has been hired to do janitor work at the Bellview school for the coming school year, is now giving the building a general cleaning, preparatory to the opening of school September 9.

● Miss Pauline Byrd returned to her home Saturday after spending a week visiting friends in Dorris, Calif.

● Karl Moore, who is working at a Klamath Falls chain store, spent last Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Moore.

● Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Scott and two daughters, Mary Elizabeth and Lou Ann of Berkeley, spent several days this week with Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Lamkin. They were on their way to Portland to spend the rest of their vacation. Mr. Scott is a cousin of Lamkin.

● Mrs. Mary Stillwell spent the day with Mrs. W. L. Huxley Thursday of this week.

● Mr. and Mrs. Willard Chatman, who have been living on the Cyster place with Mrs. King, have moved to northern California.

● Chester Farmer, who is employed in a mill at Dorris, Calif., spent Sunday with his wife and son Bobby.

● E. D. Campbell left Saturday for California with Mr. Gregory. Campbell will go on to Oklahoma later in the fall. Ivan Farmer has rented the Campbell place and will harvest the produce.

● B. H. Christlieb made a business trip to Applegate Wednesday.

● Mrs. Charles Anderson is enjoying a visit from her mother, Mrs. Hushower of Santa Rosa. Mrs. Hushower spent the first part of the summer at Myrtle Point with her son and will spend the rest of the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Anderson.

● Mr. and Mrs. Bensted and children from Kansas City are visiting at the George Yockel home this week. Mrs. Bensted is a sister of Mr. Yockel.

● Mr. and Mrs. Hoag of Monmouth were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Norton Webster.
