1—Men of the One Hundred and Eighth Infantry going over the top in a bayonet charge during the army maneuvers at Pine camp, N. Y. 2—Members of the house of representatives leaving the Capitol in Washington for their homes immediately after the adjournment of congress. 3—View of Port Said and the Suez canal, object of solicitude on the part of Great Britain because of the Italo-Ethiopian war threat.

Star of Finland Led the Parade

As part of the annual Harbor day celebration at San Francisco the last of the old square rigged vessels on the bay, the Star of Finland, was decked out in flags and bunting and towed by a tug at the head of the gigantic marine parade. The Star of Finland is the old sailer which it is planned to buy and anchor at the waterfront for use as an old time sea museum.

"Ears of the Army" at Work

The United States army's huge "ears," sound locators tuned to pick up noises which might come from "enemy" aircraft or infantry, as seen in the war maneuvers at Camp Pine, N. Y. These locators are synchronized with the huge searchlights and once a sound is picked up, the lights reveal the cause of the disturbance.

Farmerettes Ready for Championship Events

Only the most modern of farm machinery was good enough for these Pomona farmerettes. They were getting in readiness for champion farm girl contests at the Los Angeles County fair in Pomona. It was an international affair with elimination events staged for Mexican, Portuguese, Italian, Swiss, Danish and Swedish girls.

Field Mass Held During Army Maneuvers

During the great army maneuvers at Pine camp, N. Y., religious services were held regularly, men of all creeds attending. The illustration shows a Catholic priest conducting a field mass at an improvised altar.

Army Tank Mothers Brood of Bayonets

Dashing out from the protective but speedy hulk of this modern tank, soldiers of the Sixteenth Infantry, from Governor's Island, are pinioning their invisible enemies to the ground with bayonets during the tank drill at the Camp Pine maneuvers at New York. These soldiers were the winners of the drill.
