BELLVIEW NEWS NOTES

Special to The Miner—

Plans for the "carnival" which the Community Club is sponsoring Friday evening, November 8, are rapidly progressing. The program seems to be shrouded in mystery. However, we know that Mary Wallace is to be presented in "Top Hat," the latest tap dance. "School Days of '49," composed by a club member, will also be presented. The ten-round boxing bout will alone be worth the price of admission. Several prominent Bellview women will be featured during the evening. Besides the program there will be a mind reader, a fortune teller, and several games of chance. Mrs. Deadmond, Mrs. Pagel, and Mrs. Pankey are busy planning the lunch which will be served during the evening.

All those who are participating in the program are asked to meet at the clubhouse Monday evening, November 4, at seven o'clock to practice. Mrs. Fred Homes, Mrs. Claude Conley, and Mrs. Richard Joy are in charge of the program.

On Monday, October 21, a wedding of interest to Bellview people took place, when Miss Pansy Reed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Reed, became the bride of Mr. Elmer Halbert.

Mrs. Halbert came to Bellview with her parents several years ago. She attended the Bellview School until she was graduated from the eighth grade. Mr. Halbert is also of this community.

They left Tuesday for California where they will make their home. The best wishes of the entire community are extended to them.

The Bellview Grange is sponsoring a hard times dance Friday evening, November 1. The dance committee is composed of Louis Pankey, Mrs. Herman Helm, and Mrs. Mary Hash. Chicken sandwiches, cake and coffee will be served.

Twenty-two ladies met in an all-day session at the meeting of the Extension Unit Tuesday. Mrs. Mabel Mack of Medford and Miss Sager of the Oregon State College at Corvallis were present to assist the women with their sewing problems. Miss Sager explained how they could use their guide patterns more advantageously. At noon a covered dish luncheon was served, with Mrs. Albert Arnold acting as hostess.

Personal Mention

Mrs. Margaret Beswick, Mrs. Floyd Clark and Miss Lottie Beswick were guests of Mrs. Minnie Webber of Sams Valley recently. Mrs. Webber is an old friend of Mrs. Beswick.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Samford recently entertained the teachers of the Bellview school at a delightful pheasant dinner. Those who enjoyed the dinner and the pleasant evening which followed were Miss Doris Hitchcock, Miss Eunice Hager, Mr. William Ford, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Samford.

Guy Randles, who has been making his home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Randles, for the past several months, has purchased the Ralph Clapp Sr. place. Mr. Randles and two children, Wanda and Ivan, are nicely settled in their new home.

R. E. Newbry and D. M. Lowe of Valley View returned last Thursday from a hunting trip to Red Mountain. They brought back four nice bucks.

Mr. A. C. Heinz is expected home from Klamath Falls where he has been employed.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hesseaur and William Ayers attended the Lutheran church in Medford Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Crow of Modesto, Calif., are visiting with Mrs. Crow's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Deadmond, and her sister, Mrs. Walter Longstreth.

Little Bobby Wallace, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wallace, has been ill for several days, but is slightly improved now.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Homes made a business trip to Medford Wednesday.

Mrs. Etta Nelson and daughter Virginia left Monday for their home in Sebastopol, Calif., after a few days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gowland. Mr. and Mrs. Miller who have spent the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Gowland, returned with Mrs. Nelson. Mr. and Mrs. Miller are the parents of Mrs. Gowland and Mrs. Nelson.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Castle of Los Angeles are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Talbot.

Marie Walker attended the funeral of Mr. Louis Pankey at Sprague River, Ore., Sunday. Mr. Pankey, who lived in this community several years ago, is a cousin of Mr. Louis Pankey of this district.

The basketball team of the Bellview school will play a game with the Wagner Creek school Friday afternoon at Bellview. Two weeks ago the Bellview team lost to Wagner Creek 14-2 in a game played there.

Mrs. Cleo Kenyon and Mrs. B. H. Cristlieb attended the Embroidery School in Medford Wednesday so that they will be able to give the lessons on embroidery to the Extension Unit at the next meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Stillwell of Redland, Calif., visited with Mr. and Mrs. Will Huxley over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Helm, Mrs. Walter Longstreth and sister, Mrs. Melvin Crow, Marie Walker, and Mrs. Henry Stenrud attended a turkey dinner given by the Jacksonville Grange Tuesday night.

Mrs. J. A. Danielson of Tacoma and two little grandchildren, Betty and Jimmy Taylor of Trall, visited from Wednesday until Sunday with Mrs. Henry Stenrud.

Floyd Clark returned Monday evening from Indiana where he has been visiting with his parents. Mrs. Louis Pankey entertained the Neighbors of Woodcraft Social Club at her home last Thursday afternoon.

LOWLY SPUD TO HAVE ITS DAY

MERRILL, Ore. — The second annual Klamath Basin Potato Festival will be held here Friday and Saturday, November 1 and 2, featuring a free "Baked-Spud" luncheon. The program will include lectures and instruction on the control of potato diseases, football games on the afternoon of each day, various contests, the annual potato harvest banquet and dance on Friday evening.

Potato exhibits, and displays of the latest potato growing farm machinery will be held on the festival grounds. Speakers on the program include Hon. Walter M. Pierce, U. S. representative of Oregon, and Prof. Hyslop of the Oregon State college at Corvallis.

Pat—Did you find that nickel you lost, Tip?

Tip—No, but my brother did.
