tion. In order to have the faintest shadow of a chance to defeat him, the G. O. P. would have to fire Chairman Fletcher, keep Hoover off the hustings, nominate a real progressive, quit toadying to the barons, and scrape the moss from its back. And that doesn't seem to be among even the remotest possibilities.

There is a friendly argument going on between Chicago and New York as to which city has the most racketeers and consequent crime. Chicago seems to be leading at the present time and New York feels quite virtuous.

Gray's Harbor boasts the biggest payroll for any December since 1930. Logging operations are at the highest peak for several years on account of government work projects and logging camps.

The nut growers in annual meeting passed a resolution urging the next Congress to allocate more money to fight tree pests. If the "rugged individualists" were in power and running true to form they would have to tell the nut growers to allocate their own money and fight their own tree pests.

A Washington correspondent says one-half of the administration's trouble has come from free and easy spending and the other half from free and easy talking.
