TALENT

Fire destroyed the home of Carl Beeson of Talent in a Christmas morning conflagration which completely destroyed the home.

The fire, which was supposededly due to defective wiring or a bad flue, started in the attic and, whipped by winds, spread over the entire house before the Talent Fire Department could function. The Ashland fire department was called, but arrived too late. The loss partly covered by insurance, was greatly lowered by speedy action of neighbors who saved most of the furniture.

Mr. and Mrs. George Shuler entertained a group of friends at a dancing party Dec. 24 at their home at Hyde Park. Forty guests enjoyed merrymaking to the music of the Morgan orchestra.

Matiline Maxwell was very much surprised Saturday afternoon when a number of her classmates came to help her celebrate her seventh birthday. Games were played, after which a lunch was served. Invited the guests were the pupils of the second grade and Shirley Reid and Buddy Kincaid.

Leon Adams of Santa Barbara, California, arrived Monday evening to spend Christmas with his mother and Mr. William Maxwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Parks, who are teaching in Malin, Oregon, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Parks of Talent, and Mrs. W. C. Bevington of Ashland. Mr. Parks is athletic coach of the Malin high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Verne Decker were hosts at a bounteous Christmas dinner at their home in Talent on Christmas day. Besides the family group were Mrs. R. A. Miller and daughter; Mrs. M. M. Decker of Ashland; enjoyed the gathering.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wayne Coudrey and son Carl, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Warner of the Greensprings district, left Sunday evening for a week's visit in Oakland, California, with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Warner will visit at the home of Mr. Warner's mother, Mrs. Lou Forbes, and his sister, Mrs. Sam Chisholm. Mr. and Mrs. Coudrey will spend their week at Mrs. Coudrey's grandmother's, Mrs. Ida Reynolds.

Many Talent folks attended the Christmas programs at Ashland and Medford, as well as the theatre programs and Elks Charity ball.

Mr. and Mrs. William Maxwell spent Christmas day in Roseburg visiting relatives and enjoying the Christmas festivities.

Mr. John Wagonoth of Talent passed away Sunday morning at the Sacred Heart Hospital. Mr. Wagonoth has lived the greater part of his past life around Talent.

He had many friends who regret his passing. Altho blind and afflicted for many years, he was always cheerful and a good neighbor. He is survived by his wife Lizzy, one daughter, Mrs. Warren Bax, and two grandchildren who have the sympathy of their friends and neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hodapp and two daughters, Mary and Maxine, spent Christmas day with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mann of Ashland.

Rev. and Mrs. Lewsadder had for their guests for the holidays their son Walter, wife and three children of Portland.

Mrs. Alice O'Byrne, teacher at Forest Creek, is spending her vacation with her sister, Mrs. Thurston.

Mrs. Louise Cambest had for Christmas dinner guests, her son, Tiny of Bonanza, Hugh and family of Anderson Creek and Mr. Frank Cameron and wife of the Applegate country.

Friends of Wiley Hill will be pleased to hear that he is rapidly recovering and it is to be hoped he will soon be out again after a serious illness.

Brad's Bit O' Verse

By CLEM BRADSHAW

NEW YEAR

So it's you, New Year? Well, you're 'bout on time,
And you're all dolled up and a-lookin' prime;
And believe me, boy, you are welcome, too;
There's a heap left over for you to do.

Better be sheddin' them cute gauze wings
And roll up your sleeves and tackle things;
For the world ain't feelin' a bit too good—
With some o' the kids in a fightin' mood.

Nothin' to say 'gainst your old man;
When a feller does just the best he can,
I claim his record is toler'bly sound,
Though it looked like stallin' and putterin' 'round.

Not blamin' the old Year—not at all;
Wasn't his doin's that things must stall;
But seemed like the fellers kept hangin' back
And keepin' the world from the forward track.

But the Old has gone and we've got the Nsw,
And there's work piled up; and we're lookin' to you
To spare some time from your play and fun
And finish some jobs that were left undone.

Oh, keep good faith with the world, New Year;
Bring peace and hope and good will and cheer;
You're a husky lad, and you look right stout,
And it's well you are; for your work's cut out.

Bring calm to the clamor and stress and strife,
And help us win toward the best in life
And to conquer Hate and to boost for Joy.
It's a whale of a job; so get busy, boy!
