

ASHLAND GROCETERIA

A COMPLETE FOOD MARKET
HOME OWNED - - HOME OPERATED

-- SPECIALS FOR SATURDAY and MONDAY --

Flour Taxes Are Off!

NEW LOW PRICES ON ALL BRANDS

Groceteria Blend ^{Now} Only 49's - - $1.63
Sunbeam ^{All Purpose} Flour ^{New Low} 49's - $1.29

LODI PEAS, 2s - - 9c
California Pack. While they last

FROM ASHLAND'S FINEST MEAT MARKET

BACON, dry sugar cured, lb 29c
Any size piece

LARD, 3 lbs. - - 49c
Home rendered---our own make

COUNTRY STYLE SAUSAGE
All Pork. Per lb. 19c

VEAL and HAM, lb. - 15c
Ground ready for loaf

GROUND ROUND STEAK
Steer Beef. Per lb. 18c

POT ROAST, lb. - - 12½c
Cut from steer beef

FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

BANANAS, 3 lbs. for - 25c

LETTUCE, solid heads, 2 for 9c

ORANGES, 2 doz. for - 45c
Full of juice

SNOW, 3-lb. cans - 63c
Prices going up

TOMATOES, 2½s - - 9c
Bagley's Ashland. While they last

COFFEE, Maxwell House - 25c
Good to the last drop

CORN, No. 2 cans, 3 for - 35c
Select Brand Golden Bantam

MATCHES, 6 carton pkgs. 15c
Full count

CAKE FLOUR, per pkg. - 25c
Swansdown

POST TOASTIES, 3 for - 19c
Large packages

BAKERY PRODUCTS

GOOD BECAUSE THEY'RE BAKED
THE DAY YOU BUY THEM

APPLE TURNOVERS, 3 for 10c
Plenty of apple

DOUGHNUTS, doz. - - 15c
Our own recipe

LEMON CREAM PIES, ea. 20c

SPECIAL SPICE CAKES - 25c

BREAD, per loaf - - 10c
Cracked Wheat

EDDY and WOLTERS

BELLVIEW NEWS NOTES

The Community club met at the clubhouse Wednesday afternoon. During the business meeting Mrs. Alice Gowland gave a report on the turkey dinner given by the club recently. A small sum was cleared. The dance committee also gave a report. The club decided not to hold dances at regular intervals any more. It was voted to have a bonding company take care of the bond for the license to hold dances. The executive committee, composed of Mrs. R. E. Bell, Mrs. W. O. Martin and Mrs. Clara Kincaid, are to purchase new silverware and new dishes for the club. After the business meeting, Mrs. A. C. Joy presented Senator Geo. Dunn, who gave an interesting explanation of the issues to be voted on at the special election to be held this month. Mrs. Nell Dunn was presented in two vocal solos. Following the program the hostess committee, composed of Mrs. C. B. Lamkin, Mrs. Fred Homes and Mrs. W. O. Martin, served dainty refreshments. Mrs. Alice Pagel and Mrs. Claude Conley presided at the tea tables.

The Bellview Cooperative Water association held its annual meeting Monday evening. The officers elected for the coming year are as follows:

Homer Moore, president; R. E. Newbry, secretary, and Charles Anderson, treasurer. Paul Held, Homer Moore, Herman Helm and R. E. Newbry were elected directors. The association is pleased to announce that it is in better circumstances than ever before.

The Bellview P.T.A. will hold its regular meeting next Friday, January 17. A pie social will be held in connection with the meeting. Edwin Dunn will be the auctioneer.

A marriage of interest to Bellview people took place in Klamath Falls Monday, when Miss Pauline Byrd became the bride of Mr. Daniel Farmer. Mrs. Farmer came to Bellview several years ago with her parents, and Mr. Farmer has spent his entire life here. Both of them attended Bellview school. Mr. and Mrs. Farmer will reside in the Charles Burns place and they will be at home to their friends there. The best wishes of the entire community are extended to them.

Mrs. Ethel Rice returned to her home in Santa Cruz, Calif., Monday evening, after visiting with the Martin and Williams families.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Christlieb entertained several of their friends at a pleasant party Saturday evening. At a late hour dainty refreshments were served. Those who enjoyed the happy evening were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Homes, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Crow, Jimmy Tucker, Morris Zugg, Mr. and Mrs. Christlieb and their family.

Mrs. Grace Cobane and daughter and Mrs. Mae Worley and daughter of Klamath Falls are visiting with their mother, Mrs. R. L. Jackson, and Mrs. Lester De Shazer.

Jimmy Wallis, Hazel Parman, Albert Newbry, Bobby Dunn and Dale Anderson are absent from school because of the mumps. Mrs.

HILT

On Monday, January 6, a daughter, weighing 8 pounds, was born to Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Geroy.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Cobb returned from their holiday trip last Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brown and daughter Wilmarie returned from Glendale, Ore. Saturday.

Mr. Godfrey Walker motored to Medford last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gran and son Billy returned from Kirby, Ore., where they spent the holidays, last Wednesday. Miss Enid Gran of Kirby came with them and plans to spend several weeks here.

Mr. Oliver Larrimore, who spent the holidays with relatives in Grants Pass, returned recently.

Mrs. George Godwin and son Gerald, who came from Portland just before Christmas, have now moved into the house recently occupied by the Holly family.

Mr. D. E. Mercer and Mr. Albert Mercer of Rochester, Minn., father and brother of Mrs. Hamblin, have been visiting at the Hamblin home.

Mr. and Mrs. Becker, daughter Edith and Mary Helen, returned from Los Angeles Sunday.

Among Medford visitors Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Talia, Mr. and Mrs. Voll and Dr. and Mrs. Langer.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Riley are now home from a week's visit at Scotia.

DR. TAYLOR ON LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Dr. A. Bower Sageser arrived Tuesday morning to take the place of Dr. Arthur S. Taylor in the teaching staff at Southern Oregon Normal school. This is for the winter and spring terms. Dr. Taylor having a leave of absence to direct the state-wide educational program among labor organizations for the WPA.

Bert Peachey is also confined to her home with mumps.

Mr. R. E. Bell made a business trip to Medford Wednesday.

Mr. J. Rosen and son Joe left Monday on a business trip to Fresno, Calif.

Mrs. Walter Longstreth and Mrs. Hinch are preparing the hot lunches for the school children this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Moore, Karl and Barbara Jean returned Saturday evening from Los Angeles and San Diego, where they have been visiting relatives.

Mrs. Malinda King is visiting this week with her daughter, Mrs. Lizzie Barron.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hash and daughter Edna were Sunday dinner guests at the Chris Peterson home in Ashland.

John Arnold, who has been seriously ill with the mumps, returned to school Monday.

The Bellview Telephone company will hold its annual meeting Friday, January 10.

Mrs. R. Schriederiter has been taken to the Sacred Heart hospital in Medford.

BRING YOUR
PRESCRIPTIONS
to the
EAST SIDE
PHARMACY

Owing to the large number of prescriptions filled daily at our store, enables us to keep our drugs fresh and of the highest potency available.

East Side Pharmacy

Phone
51

We are in Attendance 24 Hours of Every Day to Care for the Needs of Those in Distress

Our Desire is to be Helpful

Phone
32

STOCK & LITWILLER FUNERAL HOME

(We Never Close)