BELLVIEW NEWS NOTES

The ways and means committee of the Bellview Grange will sponsor another dance Friday evening, January 24. This committee is composed of Floyd Carter, Shelby Wilcox and Mary Hash. The music will be furnished by Lawrence Hubert's orchestra. The door committee is composed of Ed Dunn and Henry Carter. Mrs. Val Inlow and Mrs. Alice Gowland will act on the refreshments committee.

The Bellview P.T.A. held its regular meeting Friday evening. Mrs. Edwin Dunn and Mrs. Walter Longstreth reported on the county council meeting which they attended in Medford last week. After the business meeting, a pie social was held. A nice sum of money was cleared, which will be used to sponsor the hot lunches for the school children.

The Extension unit will meet at the clubhouse Tuesday, January 28. Mrs. Mabel Mack of Medford will be present to discuss the buying of shoes. At noon a covered dish luncheon will be served with Mrs. B. H. Christlieb and Mrs. Homer Moore acting as hostesses. Everyone interested is invited to attend.

The turkey dinner given by the Bellview Grange Thursday evening was a decided success. After the dinner, the following program was presented: Cello duet by Chester Woods and Edna Hash, accompanied by Miss Agnes Jones; two readings by Mrs. Wade Wallis; two songs by a trio composed of Roberta, Kathleen and Marilyn Nourse; two readings by Esther Carter. George Andrews acted as toastmaster. After the program, the crowd enjoyed dancing. Mrs. I. E. Drummond, chairman of the dinner committee, deserves a great deal of credit for the success of the affair. Mrs. Lee Wallis and Mrs. Ross Applegate also acted on the dinner committee. Mrs. Walter Longstreth, Mrs. Walter Hash and Mrs. Henry Carter composed the program committee.

Ed Elbugh, the new 4-H Club leader of Medford, visited the Bellview school Thursday of last week and organized several clubs. Mrs. Walter Longstreth will lead the cooking club for the girls; Miss Dorris Hitchcock will be the leader for the sewing club; Richard Joy will lead the boys' livestock club. Boys from both Bellview and Ashland will be members of this club.

The Girls' Sewing club held a meeting Wednesday afternoon. The following officers were elected: Fern Wenus, president; Betty Wimer, vice-president; Hazel Hinch, secretary; Marna Byrd, news reporter; Leona Grimm, song leader. The next meeting of the club will be February 5.

Mrs. Albert Arnold spent Friday in Talent attending a Home Extension school conducted by Mrs. Mabel Mack.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Martin returned Friday from Portland, where Mr. Martin went through the Portland clinic. Mr. Martin's condition is somewhat improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wimer and Mr. and Mrs. Black and family of Tacoma, Wash., have purchased the Van Zile place and are now nicely settled in their new home. Mr. Jack Wimer, who has been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Wimer, his parents, returned to Tacoma, Wednesday.

Mrs. R. E. Bell, who is a patient in the Community hospital, is reported to be greatly improved.

Barbara Moore was one of the eleven honor students of Junior High.

Mr. and Mrs. William Myers of Medford visited Sunday at the R. E. Bell home.

Melvin and Gene Brantley, Albert Newberry, Agnes White and Greta Freeman are confined to their homes with the measles.

Mrs. Roscoe Erwood of Los Angeles is visiting at the Freeman home.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Carter made a business trip to Medford Monday.

Wanda Heinz accompanied the SONS orchestra, of which she is a member, to Medford Thursday of last week, where they broadcasted over KMED.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rosen are having city water installed in their home. They are also erecting a new garage.

The 4-H Cooking club led by Mrs. Walter Longstreth, held its first meeting Wednesday afternoon. The following officers were elected: Esther Wade, president; Betty Dunn, vice-president; Vida Williams, secretary.

The boys will organize their livestock club Friday evening at the schoolhouse.

Mr. John Hessianuel made a trip to Medford Tuesday, where he received medical advice.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hessianeur entertained Mrs. Anna Guetzlaff, Miss Anne Guetzlaff and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Guetzlaff at dinner Sunday evening. After dinner, they all attended the Lutheran church in Medford.

Helen Dunn has received the honor of being selected by the students and faculty of Ashland high as the girl most suitable to attend a meeting sponsored by the D. A. R. in Washington, D.C., next spring. Helen's name will be sent to Salem where a girl will be chosen by lot to make this trip.

Guy Randies is having his new home remodeled and is having city water installed.

Mr. and Mrs. George King returned Monday from Cove, Oregon, where they have been visiting with Mrs. King's father, who has been ill. Miss Bess Goyette, who has spent the past several months

College Gymnasium

Today the ground-breaking ceremony was held for the new Southern Oregon Normal school gymnasium. It was a big event for Ashland as well as for the school. Actual work is expected to begin Monday. By another school year the new gym will be ready for use.

Pomona Grange

The Jackson County Pomona Grange will meet tomorrow, Saturday, at Medford. The meeting, which is to convene at ten o'clock in the morning, will be held at the Knights of Pythias hall. There will be speakers from upstate.
