BELLVIEW NEWS NOTES

By Mildred Martin
Ten Phoenix Grangers were present at the regular meeting of the Bellview Grange Tuesday night. A Pomona Grange meeting is to be held in Jacksonville Saturday night, at which candidates for county offices will speak. The home economics committee of the Pomona Grange will sell box lunches, the proceeds of which will be used for a charitable cause. Edwin Dunn, Master of the Bellview Grange, will be the auctioneer. Following the business meeting Mrs. Edwin Dunn, Lecturer, presented the following program in observance of Music Week: Two folk dances by Yvonne Christlieb, Betty Dunn, Patricia Bell, Janet Talent, Barbara Helm, and Vida Williams, pupils of Miss Doris Hitchcock; Mrs. Dunn gave an interesting reading on the history of music; A quartet composed of Patricia Bell, Barbara Helm, Janet Talent, and Vida Williams sang two songs; A vocal duet by Mrs. Henry Carter and Miss Esther Carter; a violin solo by Dale Williams; a reading by Henry Carter. The hospitality committee for the next Grange meeting, which will be held May 20, is as follows: Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carter, F. F. Carter, and Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Deadmond. The upper valley Community Club will meet next Wednesday. A covered dish luncheon will be held at one o'clock, with Mrs. Wade Wallis, Mrs. W. L. Huxley, and Mrs. Al Sherard acting as hostesses. Mrs. B. H. Christlieb and Mrs. Albert Arnold compose the program committee. They have announced that several folk dances will be presented by pupils of Miss Doris Hitchcock. The 4-H Cooking Club met Thursday night and the 4-H Sewing Club met at the school house Wednesday night. Miss Marie Walker was the honored guest at a covered dish dinner held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stenrud Sunday. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in visiting. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Kincaid and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stenrud, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Pankey, Miss Walker, Butler Walker, and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gowland. Among those attending the circus in Medford Wednesday were Mr. Lee Wallis and sons, Jimmy and Bobby, Mr. Wade Wallis, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Martin, Mr. J. H. Williams, Mildred and Lois Martin, Mr. J. O. Wednesday evening Mr. William Ford took over several boys including: Jack and Dale Williams; Bob Dunn; Kenneth Wenaus and Norman Christlieb. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Dunn, Mrs. Walter Longstreth and daughter Vida, and Heien and Betty Dunn, attended the recreational meeting of the Grange in Medford Wednesday evening. Marilyn Christlieb who is a member of the Ashland High tennis teams, won both her singles and doubles matches against Phoenix high school teams Tuesday night. Mrs. Lee Wallis and Mrs. Claude Conley went to Medford last Thursday on business. "Hick Day" was held at the Bellview School Friday. Next Friday the pupils will go to Lone Pine for "Play Day". They will engage in several sports and a track meet will be held. Mrs. Charles White, who was ill last week, is greatly improved. An eight and one-half pound son, Alden Clifford, was born Monday to Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Joy.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles Farmer and daughter Betty Lou, have moved into the Walter Longstreth place. Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Family visited with friends in Medford Sunday. Mrs. Ralph Hall returned to her home in Oakland Sunday after a week's visit with her mother, Mrs. Malinda King. Mrs. Oscar Martin, who has been ill with neuritis, is better. Mr. R. E. Bell spent the week end with his family. Mr. Bell, who has been employed in Dorris, California, has been transferred to Klamath Falls. Mr. and Mrs. George Yokel and Miss Margaret Dahl made a business trip to Klamath Falls Monday. Mrs. Ada Gandee of Ashland is spending this week with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Huxley. Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Christlieb were hosts Tuesday evening at an attractive dinner. Those present included Mrs. Clara Steiver and Mrs. Mary Clasen, guests at the Christlieb home, Cal McClellan and Mr. and Mrs. Christlieb and family. Mr. and Mrs. Homer Moore made a business trip to Medford Wednesday. Miss Doris Hitchcock and Mrs. Walter Longstreth attended a meeting of the 4-H Club Leaders Association in Medford Monday night. Mrs. Longstreth was elected to act as chaperon to the delegates at the summer school at Corvallis in June.
