

TALENT JUNIOR CLASS PLAY SET FOR 8:15 TONITE

The junior class of the Talent school is presenting a play, "Mystery at Midnight," at 8:15 o'clock this evening in the school auditorium, Talent.

The play centers around the Wentworth home during a heavy snowstorm. Barbara Cory (Opal Hill), an attractive woman in her twenties; Alma Cory (Hazel Walker), Barbara's aunt; Cloyd Parker (Kenton Robbins), Barbara's fiancé; Dick Lawrence (Clarence Mathes), a young lawyer; Letty Flanders (Wilda Morgan), a small town flirt; and Oscar Jensen (Ray Rapp), the strong man, are all unexpected and unwelcome visitors in the home of Rathburne Wentworth and his aunt, Emergene (Jean Galbraith) and Rasmus (Harvey Thayer) Washington are the colored servants of Rathburne Wentworth.

The play is filled with thrills and chills from beginning to end, and is directed by Helen Hatfield.

IT'S ALWAYS MAY When You Heat With Gas

Indoors, you can laugh at winter's winds, drizzly dampness and penetrating chill — when you heat with GAS, the modern fuel. With automatic gas heating, a flick of your finger brings spring-time comfort — summons instant, uniform warmth.

Complete winter air-conditioning is now available at modest cost — forced circulation of filtered air under exact humidity control. And the addition of a cooling coil to the modern gas furnace provides 100% year-round air-conditioning.

Why endure the inconvenience, the expense, soot, smoke, noise, odor and work of antiquated heating methods? Change to GAS now.

We have an "Electrogas" unit (floor or basement furnace) to fit your needs. Low cost and convenient budget terms make ownership easy. Inquire at our office today.
