hotel committee, aided by George W. Dunn and R. E. Detrick. Herb Grey is chairman of the publicity committee with Fred D. Wagner, A. E. Voorheis, E. H. Balsiger, Arthur W. Priaulx and John Enders as members of his committee.

George P. Taylor is chairman of the parade committee, assisted by Rex Barnett and Ward V. Croft. The reception of the candidates will be in the hands of Rex Barnett and all members of the Hillah Temple patrol will make up his committee.

The colorful Klamath Falls drum and bugle corps, the snappy Hillah patrol and the brightly garbed Hillah band will play prominent parts in the ceremonial festivities.

• Mrs. Alice Wimer and young daughter Jacqueline left this week for their home in Tacoma, Wash.

BUZZ BROWN TO FIGHT MONDAY

Elmer "Buzz" Brown, the Pacific Northwest featherweight boxing champion, will appear at the Medford Armory for the second time in last few weeks next Monday night when he squares off against Jack Ray, hard-punching Dallas, Tex., lightweight, in the 10-round main event of Promoter Mack Lillard's offering.

Ray, at 136 pounds, will have an eight-pound weight advantage over Tex Salkeld's protegee and, being an excellent fighter, is expected to give Brown no easy time.

Sonny Enders, the 155-pound Klamath Falls flash, will tangle with Jack Nealy, 155, of Kerby in the six-round semi-windup. Enders disposed of Ray Morgan on the last card at Medford and in so doing showed that he is not to be fooled with.

Red Melhorn, also of Klamath Falls, meets Bucky O'Brien of O'Brien, Ore., in a six-round special event.

A couple of four-rounders between some good crowd pleasers will complete the bill which will get under way at 8:30 p. m., with no increase in admission rates.

Baby Lions Whipped Cream Addicts

Music does it sometimes, but on this occasion it's whipped cream that soothes the savage beast, as Mrs. Marjorie Freeman of Hollywood, Calif., takes her two lion cubs, Sissie and Buddy, to lunch, and stuffs them with the creamy confection. Her pets are a gift of the San Diego zoo.

unveiling of a picture of Mr. Butler and Jacob Thompson.

A regular business meeting was held after the close of the ceremony.

• Mrs. J. M. Hughes, who has been ill at her home on Oak street, is improved.

• Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bates of Medford visited here on Armistice day.

MASONS HONOR BUTLERS IN BANQUET, PROGRAM

In honor of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Butler, Ashland Masons last night held a banquet at the Masonic hall at 6:30 o'clock, followed by a program which had been prepared by R. W. McNeal of the Southern Oregon Normal school, who is district deputy of the order. He was assisted by Mrs. McNeal.

Participants in the program were lodge members, members of the Alpha chapter of the Eastern Star and students of the SONS. Included in the ceremony was the burning of canceled bonds and presentation to Mr. Butler of a life membership in the Ashland lodge, A. F. and A. M., No. 23, and the

Ashland Woman To Give Art Exhibit

Of unusual interest to Ashland citizens will be an exhibition of oil paintings by Mrs. Lottie Rogers at her home, 31 Second street. She has been teaching art in Ashland for past seven years.

Mrs. Rogers will hold open house the week of Thanksgiving and extends a cordial invitation to those who are interested. She has arranged her paintings in groups and special emphasis will be placed on her sacred paintings which will be effectively arranged beneath special lighting.

Mrs. Rogers has long had a very impressive reputation for fine oil paintings and has been a teacher for 27 years both in Oregon and Iowa, having taught art in Salem for 13 years before coming to Ashland. Some of her art masters have included Victor Le Gault, Paul De Longpre, Daisy Anderson and Max Le Meyer.

RUMMAGE SALE ENDS TODAY AT CIVIC CLUB

Ashland Civic Improvement club will conclude its rummage sale at 5 o'clock this afternoon at the civic club house, said Mrs. F. G. Swendenburg, one of the club leaders. Contributions will be accepted during the day, and the general public is invited to shop over the assortment of useful articles offered for sale. Proceeds will go to offset expenses on the building.

LIBRARY OBSERVES BOOK WEEK EVENT IN ASHLAND

Celebrated for the first time in 1919, national observance of a yearly book week is being noted in Ashland public library by a special exhibit of new and worthwhile books.

Taking place this year November 15 to 21, the public library will observe this event with an exhibit of books of particular interest to children.
