About People You Know!

- Freckles Porter displayed his immature judgment Friday by getting chummy with an automobile in front of his home on Van Ness avenue. He was straightaway rushed to a veterinarian in Medford where his trouble was quickly diagnosed as a broken rear chassis. However, he has been returned to his home and late reports are that he is well on the road to recovery.
- Dave Whittle returned Thursday from Portland where he has been since Sunday transacting business.
- Mr. and Mrs. Luke Stennett moved Wednesday from 542 Allison street to their new home at 745 Iowa.
- Mr. and Mrs. Winston Johnson departed Sunday for Vancouver, B. C., where they will spend a few days enroute to their home in Ketchikan, Alaska. They have been spending the past two months visiting with Mr. Johnson's father, R. W. Johnson in Ashland.
- Hugh Bates is the proud new owner of a master town sedan which the Kay Chevrolet company parted with.
- Returning to Klamath Falls after spending the week-end here was George Gillette, who visited with friends and relatives.
- Mary Lou, weighing 6½ pounds, was born to Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Kenyon at their home on Fifth street Monday morning. Mother and baby are well.
- Archie Bradshaw of Klamath Falls was discharged from the Community hospital Sunday, where he has been receiving treatment as the result of an automobile accident.
- Friends of Mrs. A. H. Pratt, who has been ill at her home on Vista street, will be pleased to learn of her improvement.
- Tons of fencing and barbed wire at old price at Pell's Corner. (54c)
- W. Spears, field representative for the Shasta-Cascade Wonderland association, was an Ashland visitor Tuesday.
- Claude Shearard of Hurley, S. D., is spending a few days in Ashland before continuing his journey to the northern part of the state.
- Harry Chipman returned Sunday to his home in Alturas, having spent the week-end here.
- Jay Walton, who has been employed for the past several years as a linotype operator in the Tidings composing room, left Sunday for Portland, where he will make his home.
- The local chamber of commerce staff is gloating (and rightly too) over the fact that for the first time in many many moons out of state car registrations for the month exceed those of the Grants Pass chamber with 300 to the good. Noteworthy besides is the fact that within the past two weeks cars have registered at the local chamber from Hawaii, Republic of Panama, from three different Canadian provinces and from 34 of our own 48 states, according to Marchial Stansbury, secretary.
- Foreigners in Ashland last week-end included Tuny Bullis of Medford and Claus Kleinhammer of Applegate.
- Portland business visitors here early this week were Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Brady and Archie Sausman.
- J. D. Mars and son Ned attended an advance showing of spring shoe styles Saturday given by a Milwaukee shoe firm at the Hotel Medford.
- Leaving Saturday evening for San Francisco, Sacramento and San Jose was Mrs. G. H. Hedburg, who will spend the holidays with her daughter and will visit with friends.
- Among those spending Sunday out of town was Leslie Lusk, who visited with his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Welch of Weed.
- A. F. Long underwent a major operation at the Community hospital Saturday.
- Among those transacting business in Medford Monday were C. L. Reynolds and Dom Provost.
- Out of town visitors here Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Starbuck and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Renter of Medford who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Irwin.
- Medford visitors in Ashland Sunday also included Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Alford and Mr. and Mrs. William Gates, who visited friends here.
- C. H. Hockett of Portland was also among those transacting business here Wednesday.
- Beautiful indeed are the newly painted city trash cans which are painted such a lovely green that they almost seem part of the Christmas decorative scheme.
- Among those transacting business in Ashland Tuesday and Wednesday were Joe Hill of Portland, Joe Jacobs and Cal Gervais of San Francisco.
- T. L. O'Harra is confined to his home on Granite street because of illness.
- Jerry Jerome of Medford called on friends in Ashland Tuesday.
- Jean Derby, who has been a guest of Mrs. Guy Holman for the past ten days, left Sunday for her home in Dunsuir.
- Marcella Scribner is among those whose health is not quite up to par this week.
- Kay Chevrolet reports the sale of new 1937 cars to the following: Edwin Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Stennett of Ashland and Earl Newton of Talent.
