BELLVIEW

● Mr. and Mrs. Ben Gibson of Pendleton are visiting their many friends here over New Years. Mr. Gibson formerly was agent in Ashland for the California Western States Life Insurance company, leaving for Pendleton to take over district managership.

● Mr. and Mrs. Tom Carter of Bellview are the parents of a new son, christened Thomas Vance, born December 18.

● Miss Juanita Moon, who recently underwent an appendectomy at the Community hospital, returned to her home Sunday.

● The Misses Rose and June Aikens, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Aikens, returned to San Francisco Sunday after a few days of visiting with parents and friends.

● Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Claycomb and daughter Jean returned Sunday from Portland, where they visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Claycomb.

● Special New Year's day dinner menu at the Waffle Shop.

● Max Guiley of Klamath Falls was among those to spend Christmas day in Ashland with relatives and friends.

● Mr. and Mrs. Fred Katzer were among those to spend recent holidays with relatives and friends. Mr. Katzer attended high school here in 1928.

● Forrest O'Connell returned Monday from a Christmas visit with his parents in Portland, all set to show his team how to win from Eureka.

● Harry May, former local boy now teaching in North Bend is here for the holiday season and will stay over New Years.

● Frank Billings of San Francisco also was among prodigals to Ashland, spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Billings.

● Ray Shipman of Klamath Falls was in Ashland recently.

● For a specially tempting New Year's day dinner, dine at the Waffle Shop and make it a real holiday.

● Harry Chipman returned to Alturas Friday evening, having visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Chipman, for a short time.

● Among those participating in the most successful Community Chest drive that Portland has had for many years was Gordon Claycomb, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Claycomb of Ashland. He was in charge of advertising the drive and was among those complimented over a radio program last week-end, and also was one of the speakers.

● Medford visitors in Ashland recently included Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Sawyers, who called here on Saturday, and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Gates, here Sunday.

● Louis Presnell, who recently underwent an appendectomy at the Community hospital, was taken to his home Tuesday.

● Forrest Hall, electrician, third class, of the U. S. S. California, is visiting for a few days with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hall. Accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Miles, they planned to leave for the bay district for the week-end.

● Start your stomach off right in 1937—the Waffle Shop is featuring special New Year's menu all day Friday.

My Neighbor Says:

To soften shoe polish that has hardened pour a little turpentine over it.

Turn house plants once a week so that they may get sun on all sides. Remove all faded flowers and dried leaves.

Always fry fat with a piece of bread before putting in croquettes. When bread browns fat is sufficiently hot to fry croquettes.

Windows are likely to be steamed at this time of year. This may be remedied by wiping with a cloth slightly moistened with glycerine.

Save a part of a roll of paper after room has been papered. Seal roll and write on outside location of room in which it has been used. When patching is needed paper may be easily found.
