In this the contestants use regular code but must rap the signals out with their left foot instead of using the customary hand operation. To facilitate such large scale operations, participants will use a special telegraph key, five feet in length, which now is on display at the Miner office.

AND THEN THE FUN BEGAN!

Faye, Powell, Carroll in Lithia Hit!

Swinging merrily along to the tune of the best songs ever written in the world, "On the Avenue," opening at the Lithia theater Sunday for a three-day engagement, represents Irving Berlin at his melodious best, in a musical that is full of pep and lilting good spirits.

With Dick Powell and Madeleine Carroll making a new and romantic twosome of musical comedy, the lively Twentieth Century-Fox musical presents a real life romance of New York in a show that's as big as the town. Alice Faye, the Ritz brothers and George Barbier add both melody and mirth to the production.

Madeleine Carroll, noted hitherto for straight dramatic roles, makes a charming sweetheart for Dick Powell. The beginning of "On the Avenue" finds her, as a wealthy debutante, entering a theater with her father, George Barbier, and an explorer, Alan Mowbray, at the moment that Dick Powell, Alice Faye and the Ritz brothers are engaged in a hilarious take-off on the home life of "the richest girl in the world."

Infuriated, Madeleine stalks from the theater, threatens the manager with suit, and brushes past a stage doorman to snatch Alice's wig from her and to break the window of Dick's dressing room before she is forcibly ejected.

Relenting later, Madeleine apologizes for being a poor sport, and invites Dick to dinner. Falling in love with her, Dick promises to revise the skit, and invites her to the next performance. At this, however, Alice, Dick's partner, horrifies him by adding even more caustic lines to the skit.

LITHIANS MEET HILTS ON AHS FIELD SUNDAY

also played with town teams of other years; Lowell Brown, pitcher who last year cast his lot with the pennant-snatching Klamath Falls Red Sox; Leonard Warren, a contribution from AHS, and Wayne Combest, possessor of a slow ball which wanders up to the plate with the diffident air of a kid called on the carpet for jam-stealing.

Wearing the big mitt for the Lithians at start of the contest will be either Kenneth "Shorty" Baldwin, veteran backstop, or Al Simpson, SONS athlete.

Infield positions will show the following aspirants, all from the normal school: First base, Leonard Patterson; second, Parker Hess; short stop, Ted Schopf, and third, Arba Ager. Johnny Murphy and Carl Harris, also infielders, have been truant at several practices due to work, but may play.

Don Montgomery, at right field, is noted for his slugging tactics which frequently put the ball out into the territory covered by the bicycle brigade. Darrell Leavens, SONS, and Jack Baiding, Bellview pedagogue, will be at center field and left field posts.

Reserves for the back pasture will include Riley, Leaming, Don Walker and playing manager Hall. Hiltz, captained by Arch Blanchard, will start a battery of Arnold Bauman to Gene Trinca, with Lloyd Dusenberry, pitcher, and Court Rose, catcher, on hand to spell the regulars, according to word from Frank Ward, secretary of the lumber town outfit. Bauman will be remembered for his service as pitcher with the 1935 Ashland nine.

Manager Henry De Clerck promises that his California club has power to justify selection of the Northern California league as their stamping ground.

Holder of Ashland season tickets may use Sunday's game as a free preview of the 1937 contenders. For non-holders of schedule pasteboards a small admission charge will be made at the gate.

BARTELL AND SON

Dick Bartell, star infielder of the New York Giants is bending the twig in the way he wants the tree to grow. He is shown with his five-year-old son, Skippy, at the Giants training camp. The youngster rarely misses a Giant practice.

SAVICH, ESTES TANGLE MONDAY

Danny Savich, former University of Utah football star, has accepted a challenge to meet the best Mack Lillard could drag out—Toots Estes, ex-Hawaiian belt holder, and these two will head the mat card Monday night at the Medford armory.

Both grapplers are clever, clean and scientific and as near equals as could be arranged.

The second main event will speak for itself, with Billy McEwin, Fort Worth, Tex., buckaroo, meeting Joe "Crybaby" Smolinski. Cowboy Bill is one of the most colorful lads in southern Oregon circuits and, although a newcomer, is widely known in other states. He has wrestled professionally for more than seven years and buys and sells cattle on the side.

Following his defeat by Savich last week, Smolinski will doubtless give the little cowpuncher plenty to worry about.

Opening the all-star card will find Charlie Carr, favorite in local circles, meeting Duke Pettigrove, New Orleans ruffian. Pettigrove showed here about two years ago and will be remembered as rough and clever.

Opening bell will be at 8:30 p. m.

Hunting Out Sports

By LARRY HUNTER

The old velour hat is doffed this week to the indoor sports loving ham radio operators who, secure in the privacy of their own domiciles, bluster the atmosphere nightly with their alphabetic aerial conversations.

They render a service as was adequately proved by emergency calls under hazardous conditions during floods and other disasters, and by constant instructions in weather conditions generally, with recent reports of Crater Lake park storms as an outstanding example.

And they'll play their hardest this week-end at the annual state convention here. Emulating Astaire and Bill Robinson, they'll tap out messages with their using an enormous telegraph as sending instrument. They will have contests in taking their wives via the ether. This shot chance of a man to take his wife sets these lads far apart as men among men!

There'll even be rolling throwing tournaments for the with—who knows?—perhaps 100-yard dash by the men.
