 "Not How Cheap But How GOOD"

BELLVIEW

At the regular meeting of the Bellview Grange Tuesday evening eight candidates were initiated in the first and second degrees. The ways and means committee announced a dance to be given at the clubhouse May 14.

The program was given by the Grange members whose names start with C or D. Catherine Davies gave a reading, "Roses for Mother." Two whistling solos were given by Ruth Eyerly, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Freeman. A reading, "Mother," was given by Henry Carter.

Following the serving of refreshments, the group enjoyed dancing to music furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Freeman.

The hospitality committee for the next meeting includes Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Wilcox, Marie Walker, Alice Pagel, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Williams, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Snider, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Andrews and Mrs. Mabel White.

The Upper Valley Community club will meet at the club house at 12:30 p. m. Wednesday, when they will enjoy a covered dish luncheon. Mrs. Alice Pagel, Mrs. John McCollum and Mrs. Reynolds will act as hostesses.

Miss Marie Walker, Mrs. Louis Pankey and Mrs. Archie Kincaid compose the program committee.

During the business meeting officers for the coming year will be installed. There also will be an exchange of bulbs and flowers.

A new telephone line has been built to the Archie Kincaid ranch. The Kincaid number will be 27-F-4.

Now, How About the Practical Side of MOTHER'S DAY?

We all like to send loving letters and thoughtful little gifts to Mother on her day—and we should. But how about the other 364 days of the year? Wouldn't this be an appropriate time to give thought to some all-year comforts and conveniences for her?

SAVES STEPS

It is surprising how little it costs for additional outlets in your living room, kitchen, bedroom, garage or porch. There is no muss, no bother to installations and they can save miles of steps and hours of annoying inconvenience. And, by the way, has your mantel been wired for an electric clock?

Electrically-operated conveniences, including refrigeration, kitchen mixers, electric stoves and many other improvements are worth your investigation. Remember, Electricity Costs Less in Ashland!
