

Battle Royal To Open Monday's Ring Card

A six-man battle royal features the opening of the all-star wrestling card at the Medford armory Monday night with Pete Belcastro, Jimmy Goodrich, Joe Smolinski, Dick Trout, Alvin Britt and Tommy Feeback all tangling in what promises to be the most thrilling battle royal ever staged in southern Oregon.

First two wrestlers eliminated will lock grips in the first event, second two in the semi-windup and the final two in the main event. Promoter Mack Lillard announces that Dude Chick will return next week for a lengthy stay in southern Oregon.

GOLF TOURNEY STALEMATES
Significant for its inactivity, the Active club golf tournament saw Skeet O'Connell default this week in his match with Foster Thompson, placing Thompson one step ahead in the consolation bracket for fifth place. No championship section matches have been played recently.

Ashland Girl in Charge of Spectacle

Shown above is Miss Ellen Franco as she inspected a group of designs for settings used in the production of "America, the Melting Pot," massive historical spectacle presented Friday night in Grants Pass. Miss Franco, who was graduated from Ashland schools, including Southern Oregon Normal, is a teacher in Grants Pass and, as general chairman, had charge of the entirely original pageant which had a cast of over 1,500 students and attracted hundreds of spectators.

PARIS COMES TO LIFE ON SET AS 'HISTORY' MADE FOR LITHIA

Charles Boyer is back in his beloved Paris—on a Hollywood sound stage.

Set-building wizards have created a section of a boulevard which hums with activity as Frank Borzage prepares to direct an important scene establishing the title of "History Is Made At Night," in which the French star is co-starring with Jean Arthur at the Lithia theater Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

At a signal from the director, Boyer starts walking through traffic, followed by camera and sound crews on perambulators. Taxis whiz by. Extras—Paris types, young and old—pass back and forth at prearranged intervals. Boyer, playing the maitre d'hotel of a fashionable cafe and a well known figure in Paris, enters a small book store.

He greets the proprietor, veteran character actor Maurice Cass, then turns to a distinguished looking man who is examining the pages of an old volume through a reading glass. Boyer compliments Oscar Apfel, playing an author, on his latest biography.

"Paul (Boyer's character name), when are you going to let me write a biography of you?" asks Apfel.

The story cafe celebrity replies that he's flattered.

"You're too modest. If I could put into your biography what you have seen and experienced, I'd give a true picture of our times. And I'll tell you a secret—I even have the title! 'History Is Made At Night!'"
