Bosses Won't Hire People with Halitosis (BAD BREATH)

People who get and hold jobs keep their breath agreeable

With the best to choose from these days, employers favor the person who is most attractive. In business life as in the social world, halitosis (unpleasant breath) is considered the worst fault.

Unfortunately everybody suffers from this offensive condition at some time or other—many more regularly than they think. Fermentation of food particles skipped by the tooth brush is the cause of most cases. Decaying teeth and poor digestion also cause odors.

The quick, pleasant way to improve your breath is to use Listerine, the quick deodorant, every morning and every night. Listerine halts fermentation, a major cause of odors, and overcomes the odors themselves. Your breath becomes sweet and agreeable. It will not offend others.

If you value your job and your friends, use Listerine, the safe antiseptic, regularly. Lambert Pharmaceutical Company, St. Louis, Mo.

LITHIANS BOOT GAME IN CLOWN CLASSIC AT G-P

Rivalling all other Shakespearean productions ever staged in southern Oregon, the Lithian baseball team put on "A Comedy of Errors" against the Merchants at Grants Pass Sunday and wound up with the losers share of a 9-4 score and a tie for third place in the first half of the league's pennant struggle.

Big numbers on the statistics sheet challenged the super method previously known only in Hollywood as the locals piled up one triple, two doubles and 12 singles for 15 hits off Rudolph Heyne, right handed surprise package on the mound for Grants Pass and Chuck Ostrom who came in from the outfield to pitch in the ninth frame.

The Merchants, for their part, got 14 safeties from the offerings of three Ashland pitchers, Brown, Hardy and McLean, and made only two errors.

Coming up to bat first, the Lithians saw Balding get on first base with a walk, steal second and remain there as Hall struck out and McLean was put out at first, Schopf having gone out on a fly to start the inning.

Grants Pass drew three walks from Brown and Chuck Ostrom's two bagger brought McCarthy home before three Merchant outs were recorded.

Ashland showed its best form in the second inning, Leavens getting a single, advancing one base on Ager's sacrifice and scoring as Leonard Patterson smote a double far into the outfield. Phil Keeton, fondling a new bat donated by Hamaker and Brower, smacked a single and Brown made first on an error by Hallas of Grants Pass. Patterson was caught out trying to steal third base but Keeton came in with the second tally when Schopf got a single.

The Climates found Brown for another hit in the third frame and bunched two hits, one of them Ostrom's triple, and an error by Jack Balding for another run.

Aided by clamor of teammates that he remain in the game, Brown climbed to the mound in the fifth and the fun began. Schopf's daily error gave Ostrom a free option on first which he took, Catcher Hartman sent him to second with a sacrifice and beat the bunt to first for a stinky hit. Machado filed out to Brown and Ostrom crossed the plate when Pittman singled. Blacksmith poled out a double, scoring Hartman and Pittman, advancing to third on Balding's error that set Heyne up on first, who also tallied when Hallas sent a single across the diamond.

The Lithian's two hits in the third and fourth saw Patterson, Keeton and Brown all get hits to load the bases with no outs, and then come to grief at the plate as Schopf and Balding attained first on fielder's choices. Hall's strike-out ended the threat.

Yielding at last to the crying need, the headstrong locals assented to Bob Hardy replacing Brown in the last of the sixth, Brown going to right field for Hall. The result of the change in pitchers was that two handy strikeouts and a fly to shortstop retired the Merchants in short order, although they clicked briefly for two bingles.

A triple by Machado in the seventh amounted to a run on Ager's error but Hardy struck out the next three batters in that frame.

More changes in the eighth saw McLean take over the hurling duties, Hardy go to the bench and Simpson put on the mask to receive the Chief's lusty but rather aimless efforts. Net results: glad Merchant hitters, gymnastic practice for Simpson, two hits and two more runs for Grants Pass.

Feeling their oats no little, the Merchants gladly removed Heyne, put Ostrom on the mound and Beers in the Ostrom territory at center field for the ninth frame. Ted Schopf blasted a triple and Willie Durham, replacing Jack Balding, drove the shortstop in with a double, took third on a passed ball charged to Hartman, and scored himself under Hardy's long fly to left field, but the joy was short lived as McLean filed out and Leavens fanned, ending the game.

Batteries: Heyne and Ostrom to Hartman for Grants Pass; Brown, Hardy and McLean to McLean, and Simpson for Ashland.

Umpires: Riggs and Black.
