

Coming direct from sensational successes in Seattle, Portland and other large west coast theaters, "The Darktown Scandals," world's outstanding all-colored musical revue will appear in a special one-day engagement at the Lithia theater Wednesday.

Featuring 35 black and tan entertainers direct from the heart of Harlem, the "Darktown Scandals" is the fastest, the peppiest and flashiest stage revue on tour in America today. The show headlines Ida Cox, world famous blues singer, the Cotton Pickers, famous Victor recording orchestra; a chorus of singing, dancing musical comedy artists.

On the screen John Boles and Doris Nolan will appear in the comedy romance, "As Good As Married." The stage revue will appear at 4:15, 8 and 10 p. m. Tuesday.

- John Billings, CCC instructor at Lava Beds camp, visited last week-end at his home here.
- LaVern Dalkenberg of Lakeview spent the week-end in Ashland.
- Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Wolcott and Bill Porter have gone to Lakeview where Wolcott and Porter are employed on a construction crew.

DOPEY the Dope!

HEH! Heh! Heh! Six out of 12 last week and only missed the SONS-Albany and Oregon - St. Marys games by a point apiece, which is no worse than the place-kickers did!

Although missing the exact score, Dopey picked the precise margin by which Ashland beat Grants Pass in their mud-slinging bee and, by watching that fighting bunch of die-hards from Hood River last Friday, became reconciled early to making a wrong guess there. Bill Bowerman should speak to his boys, though—pick them to lose and they win, pick them to be top-kick and they're just a buck private in the rear rank. No consistency!

Idaho done the Dope dirty and, as for Minnesota, vell, Ay soom-tam teenk he ban leave da Copenhagen to home!

However, the satisfied customers broke even on the day—and so did Dopey. He wagered 25 cents (five whole nickels, one-quarter part of a dollar, mind you!) on St. Marys, but with the stipulation of tie, no bet!

So, here we go again. Everybody on, and the lucky guy who grabs the brass ring gets a free ride!

NOTRE DAME-ILLINOIS: The hustling Hibernians used six teams to beat Drake and they'll use six points to whup the Illini into submission.

PITTSBURGH - DUQUESNE: Here's where the beanstalk falls on Jack Pitt by a brace of touch-downs.

MINNESOTA-INDIANA: Dopey hopes that the Indiana alumni don't let that Nebraska win over the Gophers fool them into betting on their alma mater because Bierman's boys will hoosier the Hoosiers by 20 points.

CALIFORNIA - WASHINGTON STATE: Will finish in just that order. 12-0 for the Bear.

OREGON-GONZAGA: Gonzaga finally scores but not enough. Oregon, 14-6.

UCLA-STANFORD: The Injuns have lost Bill Paulman, and the Bruins' backfield ace, Kenneth Washington, will demonstrate the fallacy of the theory that a fast color won't run. He will and UCLA will win by two touch-downs.

ST. MARYS-NEVADA: At last the Gaels have found someone they can lick. Nevada won't upset them and will lose this year, 21-6.

OREGON STATE - WASHINGTON: With some butter-fingered backs replaced the Beavers will be better, but hardly hearty enough to halt the Huskies, who will win, 19-12.

USC-OHIO STATE: Ohio State will barely get the wooden horse inside the walls of Troy before it is all saddled and shod. The Trojans by one touchdown, at least.

SONS - HUMBOLDT STATE: Unless the local lads show marked improvement over last Saturday's performance they will be humbugged by Humboldt. The Arcata eleven by two touchdowns.

KLAMATH FALLS - GRANTS PASS: The Pelican's beak won't be big enough to swallow the Cavemen, neither will his score be big enough to win the game. Grants Pass, 14-6.

ASHLAND HIGH-CRESCENT CITY: The Grizzlies to win by one touchdown.

BOSTON U-SLIPPERY ROCK: Just to show extreme disdain for superstition, Dopey throws in this 13th selection free of charge and claims that Slippery Rock has a slick chance to beat the bean-eaters.

Pete Belcastro And Clemens Will Meet In Armory Wrestle

Pete Belcastro, southern Oregon's super meanie wrestler, will tangle with Frankie Clemens, the Indian wonder boy of Oklahoma, in the main event of Promoter Mack Lillard's weekly groin contest at the Medford armory Monday night.

Clemens' death-defying paralyzer hold has won a great many matches for him in his many appearances here and the hold will go a long way toward winning over Belcastro if he can apply it to the big Italian.

In the middle main event fans will need colored glasses and a sense of humor when Les Wolfe, the terrible Texan, meets Gorilla Pogi, the Argentine terror. In Wolfe's last match Pogi refereed the bout and sided against Wolfe, so revenge attempts may be expected.

Opening this all-star card will come a new meanie under the name of Glen Stone from Olympia, Wash. He will meet Frank Murdock, the fast and clever lad from Oklahoma. Stone formerly wrestled here about two years ago under the name of Billy Newman. Opening bell will be at 8:30 p. m.

Grizzlies To Travel For Crescent Game

Traveling right behind the big SONS squad to the California coast this week, Coach Skeet O'Connell's Grizzlies will make their stop in Crescent City where they will meet a strong eleven from Del Norte high school Saturday afternoon.

The Ashland high school team took a major setback this week when "Dutch" Scheiderer, regular center, cracked a bone in his wrist but Jack Weaver, tackle, has fitted into the pivot post well and O'Connell's squad is expected to win over the Crescent City outfit.
