Junior High Quint Continues Victory March At Phoenix

The Junior high basketball team defeated Phoenix senior high first team Tuesday night at Phoenix 23 to 22. Ashland led at half time 13 to 11 and 17 to 14 at the end of the third quarter. Only a few points separated the teams the entire game.

James Smith, regular center, and David Fortmiller, regular forward, were unable to make the trip due to minor ailments. Alvene Monroe in scoring six points filled in at Fortmiller's forward position nicely. Rush and Provost each played one half.

This victory brings the Juniors' winning streak to eight wins and one loss. All opponents thus far have been senior high school teams.

Starting Tuesday night against Grants Pass, the majority of opponents will be junior high teams.

The lineups:
 Ashland (23) Phoenix (22)
 Monroe, 6 F. McFarland, 3
 Weaver, 4 F. Downing, 3
 McNeely, 3 C. McAbee, 6
 Martin, 8 G. Hensler, 4
 Rush, 2 G. Vroman, 4
 Subs: Ashland—Provost for Rush. Referee: Eldred Colver.

• Mr. and Mrs. Leo Simmons of Eureka, Calif., were guests at the R. E. Bell home New Year's day and Sunday.
