THE TALL AND SHORT OF IT!

A COUPLE of the Broadway Clowns, negro basketball phenoms, pose for the cameraman: "How's this one?" asks Don Goins, holding the ball high in the air as little "Runt" Pullins vainly tries to reach up and get it. Goins and Pullins will be seen in action here when the famous negro court comedians play Southern Oregon Normal in the SONS gym at 7:30 o'clock tonight. They also will play the SONS in Medford tomorrow night, Feb. 5.

Wednesday, Feb. 9. There will be a program of special music and games, which will be in charge of Mrs. Willis Byrd and Mrs. A. C. Joy. The hostesses for the meeting will be Mrs. John Hellmeyer, Mrs. James Chamberlin and Mrs. Herman Helm.

● The Bellview Home Extension unit will hold a cooked foods sale at the Ashland Groceteria Saturday, Feb. 5. All members are requested to leave their food either at Mrs. Louis Pankey's or with Mrs. Walter Longstreth. The sale will raise money to send a delegate to the Home Makers' conference to be held in Corvallis next week. The delegate chosen is Mrs. Val Inlow.

● The Ashland merchants' dinner held at the Grange hall Friday evening of last week was quite successful. The musical program consisted of several selections on piano and violin given by Edna Hash and Chester Woods, followed by Virgil Jackson and his Hillbillies. The dining room was in charge of Mrs. Edwin Dunn and the kitchen in charge of the ways and means committee, Mrs. Hash, Mrs. V. Lanini, and Mrs. Willis Byrd.
