The Cross

For generations the Cross was an emblem of sorrow, pain and death. Thieves, murderers, and other transgressors of the law paid the penalty for their crimes in crucifixion on the Cross.

It was not until after the crucifixion of Jesus that the Cross ceased to be an emblem of shame. It became the insignia of Christian society with the promise that whosoever looked upon the cross and believed would have life abundant and eternal.

Sunday, April 17, is Easter Sunday in every church throughout the country. Ministers will tell again the story of life, death and resurrection of this same Jesus who changed the Cross from one of death and disgrace to one of life, honor and glory.

You are invited to attend church somewhere Sunday as well as the Sunrise Service in Lithia park. A welcome awaits you. You will hear a message that will help you bear your Cross without complaint.

The business and professional men of Ashland take this method to urge you to attend church on this Easter Sunday.

Will You Come?

Free Methodist

Corner East Main and Seventh Streets
REV. HAROLD P. HOFFMAN, Pastor

One of the greatest days of Bible record dawns upon us again, the day of Easter, expressing the reality of the Risen Christ. Every other known religion worships a dead leader. Death holds them in the darkness of the grave. They can have no future hope of a life beyond. Their religion holds only despair.

To the people of God, who have experienced heart-felt religion, through the new birth of Christ, this day is a day of rejoicing, a day of victory, a day of hope. Our Christ liveth and abideth forever, the living hope of all mankind—Christ within the hope of glory.

Services for Sunday, April 17: 9:45 a. m., Sunday school, Mrs. Flora Adams, superintendent.

11 a. m., morning worship, sermon topic, "The Cross, the Tomb, the Resurrection."

6:45 p. m., Young People's service.

7:30 p. m., evening worship, subject, "Separation."

There will be a short program of songs and recitations following Sunday school. A warm hand awaits you.

Methodist Episcopal

MELVILLE T. WIRE, Pastor
