BELLVIEW

George Yockel returned Tuesday from a short business trip to Portland.

Mrs. Mary Thebo of Alameda, Calif., is visiting for a short time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark True. She is a niece of Mr. True's.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Polette have sold their ranch to Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Stevens of Elko, Nev. Mr. and Mrs. Polette have rented the Becker place on the former Pacific highway south of Ashland.

Mrs. Agnes Parsons of Ashland spent Wednesday visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Kincaid and family.

A group of people enjoyed a picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Arent at Rogue River Sunday. Those making the trip were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stenrud, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Pankey, Lucille and Ivan Edwards, Mrs. Ella True, Miss Marie Walker, Miss Gladys Whitson, Miss Helen Elam, Mrs. Beth Hamaker, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Arent and daughters Dorothy and Betty, Miss Eunice Kincaid and Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Kincaid.

Bill Brahs spent Sunday visiting at the home of Warren Fichtner in Medford.

Mrs. Lewis returned last week from an extended trip north to Corvallis and Oregon City, where she visited with her sons. Mrs. Lewis is Mrs. Taylor Williams' mother.

Miss Frances Port of the Applegate district spent Wednesday visiting with her cousin, Miss Helen Dunn.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McCollum returned Monday from Portland with their young son Jerry, who has been at the Dorenbecker hospital for medical treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lein and two children of Klamath Falls visited over the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Modrell and family.

Miss Lottie Beswick was at Harbor, Ore., last week, where she attended the funeral of her uncle, Robert Reiney.

Mr. and Mrs. Topendick of Redland are spending several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Weanus and family. They plan to spend the Fourth here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Foran have moved from Lay's camp ground to the Butler house on Walker avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Moore of Eugene visited a few days last week at the home of Mr. Moore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Moore.

The embroidery club gave a picnic in Lithia park Thursday afternoon in honor of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. I. E. Deadmond. Those attending were Mrs. Ed Dunn, Mrs. George Helms, Mrs. Herman Helm, Mrs. Crow, Mrs. Conley, Mrs. Walter Longstreth and the honored guest.

Tuesday afternoon several members of the Bellview P-TA met at the home of their president, Mrs. R. D. Reynolds, to discuss plans for the concession which they will hold in Lithia park over the Fourth. They decided to hold it Sunday and Monday, the location being where the horseshoe grounds were near the merry-go-round. Mrs. Walter Longstreth and Mrs. Ed Dunn are the buying committee. The men will build the stand Saturday evening.

Mrs. Frank Homes, who recently died, was brought here for burial Thursday afternoon from Montana. Her husband, Frank Homes and son Bernard accompanied the body.

Louis Willis and John Robison returned Monday from a week-end trip to Lake o' the Woods.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Homes, Miss Louise Homes from Weed, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Homes of Myrtle Creek, Frank Homes and son Bernard of Montana, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Homes and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Carter all had dinner together Thursday evening. They are here due to the death of Mrs. Frank Homes.

Frank Brahs left Wednesday night with his uncle, Mr. Wiggins, of Roseville, to visit relatives and friends for a short time. Frank will spend the Fourth at Lake Tahoe.

HAIL THE FOURTH!

To the Editor:

What has become of the old-fashioned July 4 when they read the Declaration of Independence and some orator waved the flag and let the eagle scream? Then the crowd sang a few of the good old patriotic songs and a big basket picnic followed; the girls wore red, white and blue dresses in the parade and a good time was had by all? We need a few of these picnics now.

OLD TIMER.
