

S FILCHERS CAUGHT IN ACT

Warner, Ashland, Everhartley and Warren Johnson, Ash Falls, were apprehended by police early Monday morning while taking gasoline from a pump at the Hawley station on Main street. A companion, Taylor of Ashland, was arrested for drunkenness. Staying on the pump had been off the night previously about 20 gallons of gasoline according to Hawley. Taylor admitted having stolen on one other occasion, but the police having visited the station the night before. The arrested men were held in Ashland and were released on Tuesday evening to appear in city court Tuesday, at which time the cost Warner, Hartley and Taylor $15 each and Taylor $10.

and Man Will end Find to Fair

Kissinger, Ashland resident, recently discovered a unique piece of nature's handiwork he picked up on a yew-wood tree on the Rogue river which had fashioned into a walking stick. It bears resemblance to a walking stick at one end and an antler at the other. The piece is 34 inches over all, and was sent to the Golden Gate Exposition by Kissinger, he said.

JACKSON TAKES FOURTH PLACE IN COUNTY SAFETY

Portland, Coos county and Deschutes county led their three divisions at the eleven month mark in the 1938 traffic safety race, Secretary of State Earl Snell announced this week.

November saw the second biggest monthly reduction in reported accidents for the year, and a sizeable reduction in resulting injuries as compared with last year.

Jackson county took fourth place among the state's seven group II counties on the basis of improvement over last year in traffic accidents, injuries and fatalities. Last month this county ranked fifth in its group.

Counties in this group ranked in the following order: Coos, Lincoln, Lane, Jackson, Tillamook, Hood River and Linn.

Church of Christ Has Attendance Gain Here

According to Rev. James E. Morgan, pastor of the Church of Christ, churchgoers are becoming more devout in Ashland during recent months, attendance at his edifice, located at Second and B streets, having made large increases over corresponding Sundays of a year ago.

Sunday school and church attendance has averaged an increase of between 50 and 60 persons each Sabbath, said Reverend Morgan this week. "We have been pleased by the display of greater interest in religious work," he said.

Starting at 7:30 o'clock Sunday night, Jan. 1, Everett McGee, well known Ashland business man, will preach. McGee is a two-year student of the Eugene Bible college.

Pat Weil-Richardson Nuptials Yreka Event

Announcement was made recently of the marriage of Patricia Weil, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Weil of Ashland, and Harry Richardson of Tucson, Ariz.

Using the ring ceremony, the young people were united in marriage in Yreka Tuesday, Dec. 27, at St. Joseph's Catholic church by Father O'Connor.
