Bountiful Borrower
A comedian from Scotland was being interviewed by the editor of a London paper, and in conclusion he remarked: "Now just ye mark my words: If you make a joke about me being a mean man from the Highlands I'll never borrow your paper again!" — Pearson's Weekly.

He seldom drove his car without a flask; in the warmth of fiery liquor he would bask. One day he had bad luck and hit an auto truck; to sort him from the ruins was a task.—Weston Leader.

When you Guess PERHAPS
YOU GUESS TOO HIGH

LONG DISTANCE TELEPHONE RATES
are lower THAN MANY FOLKS REALIZE

Recently we invited hundreds of visitors in our offices to guess the Long Distance rates to various points. Then, on an illuminated map, we flashed the true rate. Usually the guessers were surprised to find that their guess was high—often much too high! For the rate to any town, just see Directory or ask Long Distance operator...and remember, when you communicate by telephone, you get "a round trip for a one-way fare"—for the answer is part of the message!
