Friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Braha gave them a housewarming party at their new home which was recently built, Sunday evening. The evening was spent in playing cards, followed by supper. Those enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Arnet, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pankey, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Kincaid, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Kincaid, Miss Marie Walker, Mrs. True, Miss Eunice Kincaid, Mr. and Mrs. Gowland.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Kincaid and daughter Eunice spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Kincaid's mother, Mrs. Clara Taylor at her home in Ashland.

Lynn DeMille of Klamath Falls and with friends in Bellview.

The Bellview Grange announces its next meeting for Friday evening, Feb. 3, at the Grange hall, starting at 9 o'clock. Schumaker's orchestra from Medford will provide the music. Refreshments will be served at midnight.

● Bill Braha entertained a group of Normal students at his home Saturday evening. He was recently elected president of the Junior class.

● Mrs. R. D. Reynolds, Mrs. C. H. Modrell and Mrs. R. E. Bell attended a meeting of the county Parent-Teachers association held in Jacksonville last week.

● Earl and Warren Fichtner of Medford visited Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Braha and family. In the afternoon they made a trip to Mt. Ashland.

● The Bellview Parent-Teachers association held their regular meeting Friday of last week, with a good attendance. A special feature on the program was a group of 15 accordion players presented through the courtesy of the Pruitt Melody Shop in Medford. Also, Mrs. Forsythe, state vice president, was present at the meeting and gave an interesting talk. At the close of the evening, those serving on the refreshment committee served attractive refreshments of Bavarian cream, cookies and coffee.

● Bill Braha, who was ill a few days this week, was unable to attend Normal.

● Dale Williams, with Lyndel Newbry of Talent, made a trip to Salem last week. From Salem they went to Corvallis where they visited with friends on the Oregon State campus.

● Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Martin spent Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Con Austin.

● Mr. and Mrs. William Briggs returned to their home Saturday from San Francisco, where they had been transacting business. Mr. Briggs had been to Chicago on business and met Mrs. Briggs in San Francisco.

● Lynn DeMille of Klamath Falls and Louise Martin were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bell and family.

● The Bellview school board held their meeting at the Bellview school house Tuesday afternoon. William Briggs and Herman Helm were at the meeting but Walter Longstreth, who is employed in Klamath Falls, was unable to attend.

● W. O. Martin made a business trip to Medford and Central Point Wednesday afternoon.

● Mrs. Wade Wallis returned Monday afternoon from Bremerton, Wash., where she spent several days visiting with her nephew, William Townsend.

● C. N. Gillmore, who has been ill for several weeks, has recovered and has returned to his work in Ashland.

● Don Nosler of Ashland spent Saturday and Sunday visiting at the home of Jack Williams.

● Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Clark of Harbor, Oregon, spent several days of last week and this week with Mrs. Clark's sister, Miss Lottie Beswick.

● Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Joy were among the entertainers on the program for the Music club of Ashland at their meeting Monday evening.

● Mr. and Mrs. Homer Moore and daughter, Barbara Jean, spent Saturday and Sunday visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Moore at their home in Eugene.

● Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bell visited Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hinger.

● The Bellview Home Extension unit, which held their meeting Friday of last week, had a large attendance, numbering 32 in all, with five new members, and as guests Mrs. Heath of Ashland, who brought several rugs she had made for display, and Eldon Petri, Mrs. Walter Davis and Alpha
