WINDSIGHT ON SPORTS

By I TOLD YOU SO... HULEN OBJECTED TO THE MINER referring to his commentary on sports graft. We apologize, Mr. Hulen. We meant draft.

boys fought from behind to add a Hollywood thrill to the final moments when, after a 20-20 deadlock at final gun, they came back to pour three points through the hoop and end the feverish scrap. The boys won't give up—and neither will Coach O'Connell, who is entitled to an especial nod of appreciation for his effective work with the present squad.

General business conditions are being reflected in sports, too, according to Principal B. C. Forde of the high school. Attendance at basketball games has dropped off somewhat, possibly because of a moderately successful season, but mostly because things are so tough this winter that even D. Jackson can't cash a $350 check out of the small change in his penny candy machines.

was over and Warren had affixed a grin to his face that has remained since. (Unconfirmed but usually reliable reports have it that immediately afterward Ardie's stock with a certain young lady rose precipitously.)

Mabelle Jones, Velma Brower, Larry Hunter, Marcella Scribner and Carl Brower visited friends and relatives in Klamath Falls last week-end.
