Arkansas Scufflers To Be Armory Stars On Monday Eve Bill

The bearded Arkansas Scufflers from Little Rock, Ark., will go to the wrestling wars at Medford armory next Monday night, Feb. 27, according to an announcement made yesterday by Promoter Mack Lillard.

The eldest brother, Tony Jones, 212-pound former blacksmith, will meet Weed's Mad Italian, Pete Belcastro, in the one hour main event. Tony won his popularity in Medford by beating Floyd and Alvin Britt into submission and is big and tough enough to do the same to dirty Pete.

Middle brother Tuffy will have his hands full when he collides with Paul Murdoch, Waxahachie, Tex., in the middle event of six 10-minute rounds.

Opening the evening's card will be baby brother Mike Jones who will go to the post against Danny Savich, former Utah U football ace. Savich returned last week after a two years' absence and is now a full-fledged meanie.

Chiloquin, Butte Falls, St. Mary's, Paisley, Rogue River, Central Point, Merrill and Gold Beach.

In the president's cup flight are Prospect, Lookingglass, Gold Hill, Drain, Phoenix, Talent, Gardiner, Langlois, Brookings, Day's Creek and Ophir.

Reedsport and Glendale both have sent in entry blanks but will await tonight's game results before signifying which will enter the championship flight, while other teams not yet classified include Elkton, Sams Valley and Jacksonville.

VARSITY STARTS UNIQUE POLICY

As a stimulus to week-end trading in Ashland, the Varsity theater announces a unique shoppers' bargain price policy for the week-ends. Starting this Friday and Saturday and continuing for some time, special reduced admission prices will prevail.

Programs on the bargain days will be of the highest quality, especially selected for family entertainment, with pictures from Hollywood's major studios. This Friday and Saturday the Varsity is presenting for the week-end shoppers' program, "They Made Me a Criminal," featuring the sensational star discovery of the season, John Garfield, of "Four Daughters" fame, assisted by a great cast headed by the Dead End Kids, Ann Sheridan, May Robson and Claude Rains. Harry Carey in "The Law West of Tombstone," is the companion feature.

For the kiddies the Varsity also is planning a novel stunt, called "children's free show club." Each child attending any show at the Varsity will receive a ticket with the 12 stars appearing on the card. Every time the child attends the theatre a star will be punched. After 11 shows have been attended by the child he will then be a guest of the theater for a free show.

Juniors Take Easy Win from G-P Frosh In Twelfth Victory

The Ashland Junior high basketball team defeated the Grants Pass Freshmen here Monday night 26 to 16 for the 12th win of the season.

The Juniors turned in a sparkling first half game to pile up a 20 to 4 lead. The Ashland attack completely bewildered Grants Pass and splendid team work coupled with good shooting gave an exhibition of basketball seldom seen in junior high circles.

In the second half Grants Pass came to life and the locals lapsed into mediocre play. Several substitutions for Ashland spoiled team play and the offensive drive virtually collapsed. Ashland was severely handicapped by not having Alvenc Monroe, regular guard, in the lineup. He ordinarily averages 10 to 12 points per game, but was ruled ineligible by Supt. G. A. Briscoe for carving initials in a tree on the school grounds.

Grants Pass has defeated the Medford Junior high twice in the last three weeks and were rated as strong opponents. Provost and Jandreau each scored 10 points to lead the locals, while Clayton of Grants Pass also collected 10 to tie for high honors. Herrin, Garrett and Bartelt went into the game during the second half replacing Ayres, Rush and Provost. Jandreau and Fowler went the route for Coach Earl Rogers.

Membership Rogue Sportsmen Tops 220

Membership in the Rogue River Sportsmen's association was reported as having passed the 220 mark in last night's meeting held in the Medford courthouse auditorium. The session drew the largest turnout of fishing and hunting devotees since their recent organization.

Representatives from Ashland, Medford, Grants Pass, Gold Hill, Jerkby and northern California were present, Jack Bearss and Roy McNeal of this city being in attendance. Discussion centered on installation of fish screens at irrigation ditches and raising of bounty figures for predatory animals.

INGLE COWBOYS ENTER TOURNEY

Ingle's Drugstore Cowboys, following their clean sweep of the Jackson county AAU circuit, will leave Tuesday for Portland, where they will enter the state AAU championship tournament with first game billed for some time Tuesday evening.

Independent teams of the state will be paired off in Tuesday's games in Benson and Jefferson high school gymnasiums, while college teams of Oregon—including Southern Oregon Normal of Ashland—will be matched Wednesday evening. Manager Bob Ingle will take 10 players north with him, including his complete roster as follows: Tiny Jones, Marion Mann, Parker Hess, Charlie Warren, Howard Mayberry, Leonard Warren, Headrick Baughman, Hjalmar Kannasto, Wait Lee and Everett Nance.

Winner of the state tournament will earn the right to enter the national AAU basketball tourney in Denver, Colo. Concerning his team's record, Ingle said last night, "We knew all the time we'd take the county title, but we're conceding one or two of the other outfits a 50-50 chance at Portland. We won't buy our tickets for Denver until after our first game." Ingle smiled when he said that.

COUNCIL PLANS GARBAGE DISPOSAL PLAN SHAKEUP

Concluding that Ashland's legal control of the garbage collection and disposal needs of the city should be tightened, city councilmen Tuesday night planned further study of the question and preparation of an ordinance to cover the matter. Bids probably will be called for private operation of a collection franchise, it was indicated.

The council also issued a building permit to M. M. Tucker for a $1200 frame house on Mountain avenue.

HARKER-McLEAN NUPTIALS ARE EVENT OF WEDNESDAY

Miss Margaret Harker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Harker of Ashland, and Cliff McLean, formerly of this city and now of Chiloquin, were united in marriage at the home of Rev. Joseph Knotts in Medford Wednesday afternoon. They were attended by the bride's mother and grandmother and her sister, Miss Alice Harker, Miss Jean Claycomb, Miss Helen Grenbemer, Darrell Leavens and Leonard Hall.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple left for a honeymoon trip to coast points, following which they will make their home in Chiloquin.

WURZER ADDRESSES LIONS

Joe Wurzer, winner of an Elk-sponsored contest on "Americanism," delivered his winning essay before the Ashland Lions club in the Lithia hotel Tuesday evening. As part of the club's defense week program, Wurzer was received with appreciation and enthusiasm. Lions also announced procurement of entertainment devices from the Medford Elks club for their stag jamboree planned for Wednesday night, March 8, in the VFW hall.

Edward S. Peer, Portland man, was given a one-year suspended sentence by Circuit Judge H. D. Norton early this week when he was taken into court by Ashland police for passing worthless checks. Peer has agreed to make good on the checks, totaling more than $300 held by local firms.
