

WINNER KERBY-ELKTON TILT IS CUP FAVORITE

college, has drawn an estimated 500 players, coaches and fans to the city, and hotels and restaurants have been taxed to capacity this week. Although games were not outstanding during first round pairings, second round encounters developed more color and a number of teams began to take on outstanding characteristics. Today's and tonight's games, all quarter and semi-finals, will gather momentum and finals Saturday will climax the tournament.

Saturday night, following the championship game at 9 o'clock, Chamber of Commerce President Frank Van Dyke will present the 11 trophies being awarded this season. The president's cup championship game will get under way at 8 p. m. Saturday, while other Saturday games will include the following finals:

President's cup consolation, 5 p. m., Junior high gym; third-place 4 p. m., Junior high. Championship bracket consolation, 5 p. m., in SONS gym; fifth place, 4 p. m., SONS gym; third place, 7 p. m., SONS gym.

Landscape Crew Busy In Ashland District

A crew of experienced gardeners and landscape architects is busy in and near Ashland this week installing shrubs and trees, according to O. F. Palmerton, manager of the Park Landscaping company of Rogue River.

The Park concern is the only nursery which grows and acclimatizes plants in southern Oregon, Palmerton explained. The nursery has established an Ashland agency at the Flanders' Feed store on East Main street here, where orders may be placed.

Savich-Tony Jones Feud to Flare Up At Armory Monday

Promoter Mack Lillard has secured Danny Savich, the former cleanie, to settle a grudge with brother Tony Jones, the eldest of the Arkansas Scufflers wrestling trio, at Medford armory Monday night, March 6. Tony knocked Savich out of the ring last week in retaliation for the terrible beating Savich had handed brother Mike earlier in the evening and Savich has promised Tony some of the same kind of treatment.

Joe Smolinski, the Polish peeve, returns after a long absence to collide with brother Tuffy in the middle match. Smolinski is one of the meanest in the business but Tuffy is no sissy himself.

Paul Murdoch of Waxahachie, Texas, faces brother Mike in the opener which is scheduled for six 10-minute rounds.

Plan Organization Meet for Formation Of Boy Scout Troop

Members of the Talent city volunteer fire department and fathers of eligible youths, and their sons, will gather together in the Talent recreation hall Thursday evening, March 9, to form a Boy Scout troop in that city.

The troop organization is a part of a long-range plan under way on the part of Talent firemen to furnish entertainment and hobby activities for boys of their city. Bert Simmons, fire chief, will preside at the meeting, while Secretary L. W. Tame will assist.

All youths eligible for Scouting and interested in the new troop, as well as their fathers, are asked to be present in the hall located in the Wolters building.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Pankey visited over last week-end at Prospect with Mr. Pankey's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Grieves.

In Opening Go!

PAUL MURDOCH, the popular Texan who meets brother Mike Jones in the opening match at Medford armory Monday eve. Joe Smolinski vs. brother Tuffy and Danny Savich vs. brother Tony complete the pairings.

LLOYD SELBY IS NEW CAR AGENT

Lloyd Selby, for a number of years owner of a Chevrolet agency in Tulalake, Calif., this week took over ownership and management of the Kay Chevrolet company of this city which for 22 years had been under the management of the late Dan F. Kay. Selby will continue the Chevrolet Motor company's sales and service franchise in the garage at 100 East Main street under the name of Selby Chevrolet company.

Selby announced that the building's owners, Mrs. R. F. Neil and Miss Anna Hargrove, will launch extensive remodeling work on the garage front in the near future, with a number of improvements planned. New car showroom, service station facilities and more convenient entranceways will be provided.

Mr. and Mrs. Selby are making their permanent home in this city since purchase of the property from Mrs. Dan F. Kay.

Close Battles Mark Talent Fire Smoker

Another packed house saw the Talent Volunteer Fire department's monthly smoker held in the Wolters building Wednesday evening, which was marked by many close battles and interesting juggling exhibitions.

Don Wyler, Bill Ryan and R. Stein of Medford and Norvall Stockstill of Talent gave a juggling and weight-lifting exhibition as part of the program. Three rounds of boxing brought together Lawrence Rude, 105, and Clarence Cooper, 115, both of Talent, Rude winning by a close decision on points.

A wrestling match between Bill Ryan, 150, and R. Stein, 155, was won by Ryan, while J. Zickafos, 162, and Don Wyler, 164, groaned to a draw in the evening's outstanding event. Final wrestling event of the evening pitted Billy Gleims, 155, and Norvall Stockstill, 155, the melee ending in another draw. Frank Redkey and Eddie Joanis acted as referees.
