

STUDENTS GET TEAM PICTURE

All students at Ashland Junior high school Wednesday received a picture of their 1939 championship basketball team complete with the season's record printed and distributed through the cooperation of Coach Earl Rogers.

The picture of the team, taken by Bushnell studios, show Vernon Rush, Alvino Monroe, Chet Fowler, Buddy Provost, Charles Jandreau and Coach Rogers. Comparative score are given, as well as totals for the last two years, which show the remarkable record of 29 wins and five losses, 14 of the victories being chalked up this season with but two losses.

The pictures, printed on fine book paper, were produced by The Miner and donated to the school as a memento of the outstanding Junior high school team in Oregon.

Scuffler-Belcastro Feudin' To Break Out Monday Eve

It will be another wild time at Medford armory next Monday night, March 20, when Tony Jones, big brother of the Arkansas Scufflers mat trio, faces Pete Belcastro, the Mad Italian from Weed, Calif., in the top main event. Belcastro asked for no referee in the ring but the Medford commission refused to sanction this, saying a third man must be present even if he has nothing to do, so Jones and Belcastro will go at it with no holds barred. Police protection has been promised Pete to keep Tony's brothers away from the Italian as well as angered fans out of the ring.

Brother Tuffy will have his hands full when he takes on Joe Smolinski, the Polish meanie, in the second bout. Tuffy is known in the better mat circles for his strength and ability to absorb punishment while Smolinski will stop at nothing to win a match.

Jimmy Lott, the Alabama Sonnenburg king, comes back to the southern Oregon mat wars after an absence of several years to face brother Mike Jones in the opening bout.

The card, as usual, will get under way at 8:30 p. m. promptly.

Wooden Box Exhibit Shows Fairgoers Use Of Lumber Product

Amid a setting of fragrant pines, and surrounded by other exhibits of the Shasta-Cascade Wonderland at Treasure Island, Western Wooden Box Campaign has created a realistic camp scene, typical of the many that will be found this summer by the lakes and streams of the mighty Cascade range, from whose green blanket of forests come the ponderosa pine.

Just as the mighty pines supply the setting of beauty and rugged strength for the summer camper, so also shows the exhibit do they supply the protection, by means of the wooden box, for his daily food supply.

The exhibit vividly illustrates the utility of the wooden box. Supplying perfect protection for its contents, and then that duty completed, continuing its usefulness by serving as table, chairs and cupboard.

Millions of visitors to Treasure Island this summer will see the exhibit and carry away with them this picture of the utility and usefulness of the wooden box.

C OF C REPORT SHOWS UPSWING LOCAL BUSINESS

July celebration, the Shasta-Cascade Wonderland convention and the Christmas opening. The Fourth of July celebration was a decided financial success with 40 per cent refunded to the local underwriters and a cash balance of $165.65 on hand.

"Three new organizations or associations were formed during 1938, two of which the Chamber of Commerce sponsored. A very active Lions club is now organized and they have promised full cooperation with our organization. The Safety Council and the Southern Oregon College association were both organized under the sponsorship of the Chamber and both have been active and have accomplished a great deal. We owe the success of these associations to the leadership and hard work on the part of the chairmen and their committees.

"Through the cooperation of J. H. Fuller we sent four cases of lithia water to the state postmasters' convention at Baker together with an invitation to hold their 1939 convention in Ashland. They accepted our invitation at this time and we will be their hosts this year, sometime in June. I wish to make a recommendation to the Chamber of Commerce to take as their major project for 1939 the securing of a federal building.

"Several major building projects were finished during 1938, including the Tidings building, Medical Arts building and Caton's garage. "We have received and answered approximately 1750 letters, 350 of which were from persons inquiring about Ashland as a place for homes or a vacation area.

"Our joint advertising committee completed plans for three important advertising ideas. 1, the neon sign advertising our lithia water on the Plaza; 2, the new Ashland folder which was a great improvement over former literature; 3, the oking of a $1500 advertising campaign for 1939 with Gordon Claycomb, publicity agent. This campaign was approved in December 1938.

"Our office staff undertook to make all seat reservations for the Shakespearean Festival. This was done with our regular staff at no extra cost to the Festival association or the Chamber.

"There have been many new additions and improvements in our park. The Siskiyou highway and the Lake o' the Woods road project are all being pushed and we feel the Chamber of Commerce committee which worked so diligently in trying to secure the Lake o' the Woods project was very successful and much credit is due them.

"There were four new auto courts built or started construction in 1938. Our tourist accommodations compare favorably with other places this size and larger. Several big business deals were completed showing a better business trend for Ashland. The school board approved and built splendid new tennis courts for the high school and installed flood lights on the athletic field. There were approximately 20 new businesses established in Ashland.

"Our membership is now 142 compared with 110 for 1937 making about a 30 per cent increase.

"I wish at this time to express my personal appreciation for the splendid cooperation and assistance I have received from the board of directors and myself I wish to express thanks and appreciation for the hearty cooperation and assistance given us by Mayor T. S. Wiley and city council and other city officials as well as the members of the Chamber who have given willingly of their time and worked hard and diligently on committees."
