INSIGHT IN SPORTS

By I TOLD YOU SO

PARCE as a hooked nose in many is the guy who was on Ohio State to win the basketball title Monday.

Web-footed tracks were all the place when the Oregonians dashed with the fix'n's, and natives back home clapped and jumped up and down like to of shook all the off their north sides.

46-33 score was plain and, came in spite of the machinations of California's jockeys who tried to jockey out champions out of the two-straight dumping fornia upset the vain state's however, and the backmen went east to show 'em the game is played.

ant of satisfaction that and folk watched the out-what with the former coach master-minding Webfoot and this city's Bob Hardy right in the of it. Howard Hobson, coach of the local coltook his boys to the er nationals. Hardy, of e, was one of the SONS springs, just like he was unior high under Coach rs and in high school unCoach Don Faber. When y moved up to the state iversity Lanky Bob fol-
