major burns received in a fire that completely destroyed the family residence one mile south of Talent early Sunday morning. Dr. Kellogg and family moved here from Lakeview one year ago. He was buried in the Anderson Creek cemetery Wednesday. Their many friends and neighbors wish to extend their deepest sympathies to the family.

● The Talent fire department, under the leadership of Chief Simmons, is to be highly commended for the splendid work at the two fires of the past week. A quick response was made to the service station fire and it was soon under control and the department responded to the Kellogg fire south of town in quick time, but it was too far gone to save anything.

● H. H. Lowe, who teaches school at Sams Valley, spent the week-end with his family here and attended the operetta Friday evening.

● Mrs. Verne Decker, who has been visiting the past month in San Diego, Calif., returned home Saturday evening.

● The Talent Swingsters of the Talent high school played for a dance at Central Point Saturday night.

● Mrs. Elvis Cochran and small daughter Dee spent this week in Talent visiting relatives.

● Roy Coffman of Phoenix was a business caller here Tuesday.

● A. Graham and son have leased their sawmill to Mr. McKeene of Redding, Calif.

● Mrs. Ben Hart is visiting relatives in Palo Alto, Calif.

● Mr. and Mrs. Vic Milburn of Thompson Creek spent Thursday visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Park.

● Harlem Lowe, who is stationed at Vancouver, Wash., with the United States army, spent the latter part of the week visiting his parents.

● Mrs. Earl Allen, who was called to Eugene to be with her sister who is ill, returned home Sunday.

● Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs was presented at the school gym Friday evening. The operetta was directed by Marian Gould. The following characters were included in the cast: Snow White, Annabelle Riggs; Queen, Hulda Estes; Prince, Gerald Locke; Seven Dwarfs, Dick Hervy, Jackie Walty, Alvin and Buddy Graham, Dale Dobbins, Barney Riggs and Fred Prettyman. The girls glee club sang the chorus accompaniments and the high school orchestra gave the music. A large audience enjoyed the program.

● Mrs. M. Wilkinson of Dead Indian Soda springs is a guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Jones.

● Jeannette Gore, Elva and Lois Thompson, Ruby Dobbins and Agnes Lacy attended the vesper services at the Presbyterian church in Medford Sunday evening. The Masons were honored at this service.

● The Study club met at the home of Mrs. Henry Mason Friday afternoon.

● Grant Walker of Phoenix was a Talent shopper Thursday afternoon.

● The Talent Extension unit met at the home of Mrs. Glen Withrow Wednesday. The subject for discussion was "What is Charm of Manner?" Mrs. Mabel Mack was present at the meeting.

● Mrs. Vic Mason was chosen as a delegate to attend the Royal Neighbors convention at Klamath Falls on Monday last.

● The Talent baseball team played at Jacksonville Friday afternoon and was defeated, 6-7.

● Mr. and Mrs. Roland Parks and small daughter of Sprague River were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Parks Saturday evening.

● Genevieve Thayer, who teaches school at Agness, spent the week-end visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Walty.

● Amos Williams left Sunday for Yacolt, Wash., where he will be employed with Everett Skeeters' logging outfit.

● Hazel and Mary Walker of Phoenix spent Sunday evening in Talent calling on friends.

● About 60 people enjoyed the potluck supper at the Glad to Meet You club Thursday evening at the city hall. After the supper a program was presented to a well filled house.

● Donald Walden attended a charrivari at Phoenix Saturday night. Walter Coffman and Lois Harris were recently married. Mr. Coffman was formerly of Talent.

● The Talent Pinochle club held their regular party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mason Saturday night. About 20 were present.

● Charley Chapman was transacting business in Medford Wednesday.

● Twelve ladies of the Home Economics club of the Grange attended an all-day meeting at the Griffin Creek Grange hall Thursday.

● Will Bates and Ed Smith made a business trip to Medford Monday.

● A surprise was given Mrs. Keith on Tuesday when several ladies went to her home with delicious food which was served at noon. Those present were Mrs. Vic Mason, Mrs. Cliff Gavin, Mrs. Hayman and daughter Bertha, Mrs. Clarence Homes, Mrs. Chas. Long, Mrs. Henry Mason, Mrs. Ed Jacobs of Phoenix and Mrs. L. Long of Medford and the honored guest, Mrs. Keith.

● The Boy Scouts held their first meeting at the recreation hall on Tuesday evening last. Sixteen members of the troop were present.

● Talent pupils taking part in the music festival in Ashland gave their recital on the school lawn Wednesday afternoon. Many parents and visitors were present.

● Tom Lamb and Russell F. Parks spent the first of the week fishing at Squaw lake.
