

TALENT

C. C. Collins left Sunday for LaPine where he has employment with a lumber company. Mrs. Francis Frink and daughter, Mrs. Phil Cunningham of Everett, Wash., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lem Frink. Ben Clark spent Thursday in the Dead Indian country. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cochran and small son Keith of Eugene spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Estes, Mrs. Cochran's parents. Harry Moore of Ashland was transacting business in Talent Monday. Mrs. Jessie Nichols is employed at the Wolf Creek Tavern in Wolf Creek. Talent chalked up some more names in its hall of fame when a local team consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Don Maynard and Mike Bossler captured several prizes at the annual catfish derby held at Emigrant lake last Sunday. Charles Skeeters, local contractor, moved part of his crew of men to the Cove district on Dead Indian for extensive logging operations there. Earl Allen left the first of the week for near Rocky Point where he will have employment. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lane of Syracuse, Kan., spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. John Webster, after spending the past month in Eugene. They were enroute to their home by way of the San Francisco fair.

A large crowd enjoyed the Glad-to-Meet-You club Thursday evening at the City hall. The high school orchestra played several pieces on the lawn before the program began. A large number sat at the potluck supper. That being music week, the program was carried out in that line.

Mrs. Alfred Norris and daughter Annes spent Saturday afternoon shopping in Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Walker, who have been living on Thompson creek this winter, moved to Talent recently where they are occupying the Albert Black house.

The Talent extension unit held their last meeting for the season at the home of Mrs. Sam Hamilton Thursday. The making of face creams was demonstrated by Mrs. Mary Withrow and Winnifred Mason. An all-day meeting was held and a fried chicken dinner with other hot dishes was served at noon.

Word was received here that Mrs. Frank Lewis, formerly of Talent passed away at her home in Portland the first of this week.

Elmer Miller of Tule Lake visited his mother and sister last week.

Will Bates of the Bates Service station spent Sunday fishing at Fish lake.

The Community club met Wednesday afternoon at the City hall. Instead of the regular meeting the afternoon was spent redecorating the dining tables and cleaning the kitchen.

Mr. Stagger returned Sunday from the Ashland hospital where he has been a patient. Mr. Stagger suffered a broken leg while working at the Park Orchard farm.

Mrs. Lewsadder left Saturday for Glendale, Calif., to visit her daughter-in-law for a month.

The Ladies club met Thursday afternoon at the club house with Mrs. T. Quamme hostess for the afternoon. Three tables of bridge were in play. Following bridge, delicious refreshments were served. Miss Margery Clark, Bob Ohlund and Billy Gran went to Mt. Shasta to the Siskiyou county music festival Saturday.

appointed Administrator of the Estate of Amos C. Whitworth, deceased, by order of the County Court for Jackson County, Oregon. All persons having claims against the estate are required to present them to the undersigned at the office of George Codding, Attorney at Law, 217 Liberty Building, Medford, Oregon, within six months from May 19, 1939, the date of the first publication of this notice.

IVAN L. SNEED, Administrator. George Codding, Attorney for Administrator. May 19, 26—June 2, 9

United States Department of the Interior, General Land Office, O. and C. Administration, Portland, Oregon.

Sealed bids, marked outside "Bid for Timber", and addressed to the Chief Forester, O. and C. Administration, 410 Custom House, Portland, Oregon, will be received until 10:30 a. m., Pacific time, May 23, 1939 for the purchase of timber upon the tract hereinafter described; the cutting and removal of the timber to be carried out in accordance with the forest practice rules approved on July 7, 1938 by the Secretary of the Interior. Each bid must state the amount per thousand feet, board measure, that will be paid for each species or class of timber. No bid for less than the appraised value will be considered. Each bid must be submitted in duplicate and be accompanied by a deposit. The deposit must be in the form of a certified check on a solvent national bank in favor of the Chief Forester of the O. and C. Administration. The amount of the deposit will be computed at the rate of at least 20 per cent of the first $1000 of the bid, plus at least 10 per cent of any additional amount of the bid in excess of $1000 and up to $10,000, plus at least 5 per cent of any additional amount in excess of $10,000. The deposit of any successful bidder will be credited as a first installment in the payment for the timber. Checks of unsuccessful bidders will be returned upon the award of the bid. A bond will be required in an amount computed at the rate of at least 20 per cent of the first $10,000 of the bid, plus 10 per cent of any additional amount of the bid in excess of $10,000. Payment for the timber will be required in advance of cutting and at the option of the purchaser may be made in a number of installments scheduled to keep pace with the rate of timber cutting and payable upon demand from the Chief Forester. The successful bidder will be required, prior to the approval of the contract, to furnish a sworn financial statement showing ability to fulfill the terms of the contract. For copies of the form of proposal, form of contract and bond, and other information, application should be made to the Chief Forester, O. and C. Administration, Portland, Oregon.
