Young People's union will meet at 7 p. m.

Evening service begins at 8 o'clock. Rev. Westfall's subject will be "The Wedding Garment." By special request the Walker quartet again will sing a number of songs.

Prayer and conference meeting, 7:30 p. m. Wednesday, in charge of the WWG girls.

Many See Banding Of Fowl at Fair

Thousands of people crowded the mountain meadow of the Shasta-Cascade building's wonderful court at the Golden Gate International exposition Sunday to witness the international ceremony in which representatives of Mexico, the United States, Canada and Great Britain, California, Oregon, Washington and Utah banded and released migratory water fowl in observance of the migratory bird treaty existing between the four governments.

Entertainment preceded the ceremony. Participating from Oregon was Frank Wire, supervisor of the Oregon state fish and game commission.
