Church of the Nazarene

E. E. Wordsworth, Minister
 Fourth and C Streets

"The church where you never are a stranger."
 Sunday school, 9:45 a. m., Mayor T. S. Wiley, superintendent. The Sunday school is vital to all. A child without religious education is like a ship without a pilot.
 Morning worship, 11 o'clock. The pastor will preach.
 Young People's service, 7 p. m. A vital, interesting service for youth.
 At 8 p. m. Dr. C. B. Widmeyer, professor of Pasadena college, will be our guest speaker. Dr. Widmeyer is an interesting speaker.
 Welcome to all!

An Italian prophet says the world will end Friday, Oct. 13. We've always feared that some Friday 13th would come around when we couldn't get our paper out.—Weston Leader.

COUNTY TEACHERS WILL MEET MEDFORD TODAY

A preliminary meeting of all teachers of Jackson county, outside of Medford and Ashland, will be held in the auditorium of the county court house starting at 9 a. m. today, Sept. 1.
 Purpose of the meeting is to explain important changes in the method of keeping school records. New textbook adoptions and other matters relating to schools will be discussed. From 9 a. m. to 10:30 a. m. matters of importance to all teachers will be under consideration. From 10:30 a. m. to 11:30 o'clock the discussion will primarily be for teachers who are teaching for the first time in Jackson county or who are returning after some time in other fields.
 "Republicans may try a waiting game," we read. Well, by this time they should have learned how to wait.—Weston Leader.
