First entrancing sight of the Golden Gate International Exposition when Fair visitors enter the grounds through the Northwest Passage is the exotic Court of Cavalcade. The memory of famed adventurers and explorers of the past centuries is recalled by listing of their names in huge letters around the court. At upper left may be seen the names of Magellan, Balboa, Pizarro and others of equal fame.

HINDSIGHT ON SPORTS

By I TOLD YOU SO

THINGS football fans ought to know: Bronko Nagurski, famous professional football star and now a professional wrestler, has never been hurt badly enough to necessitate his leaving the game or having time-out called and he has played 17 seasons of the most gruelling game.

I. Kick was fullback and punter for the Moriat, Vt., high school squad in 1926.

When Martinsville high school of Delaware played an inter-sectional game with Bell Institute of Ohio at Martinsville Dec. 4, 1915, the two captains, the two coaches and the referee were all brothers. Martinsville won 5 to 0. James Reardon, left guard on the Truesdale, Ill., high school team in 1936, had no legs. They were cut off at the knees in an accident when he was three. He uses artificial supports.

Mrs. Jane Frailey of Hoboken, N. J., has seen at least nine football games every fall for the last 35 years.

Morris Kratsik of Chicago, Ill., has seen every game played by the University of Illinois in Urbana since 1901.—Harry Chipman.

Would-Be Grid Refs To Take Tests Here

All Ashland men who plan to be on the list of Southern Oregon conference football officials this season will undergo an examination at the high school building at 2 p. m. Saturday, Sept. 16, according to B. C. Forsythe.

Forsythe stressed the fact that only those who have passed the examination will be eligible for selection and he expressed the desire that several local men take the test as other schools probably would select them for games, as well as the local school.

Jean Eberhart, SOCE athletic director, assigns officials to each conference game from names submitted by schools in the circuit.

Wrestling Return To See Wilson, Gold Hill Marine Collide

Promoter Mack Lillard will resume, after a week's layoff, his weekly wrestling matches in the Medford armory next Monday night when he will present George (Wildcat) Wilson and Sgt. Bob Kennaston in the top one-hour main event. Both will weigh in over the 200-pound mark. Wilson's terrific sonnenberg will be pitted against Kennaston's dangerous Gold Hill crab and his Gold Hill swivel, as well as the ex-Marine's array of dirty work. Wilson is able to absorb a lot of punishment in order to get in position for his fall-dealing sonnenbergs while Kennaston isn't as adept at taking beatings he might get if he gets tough with the former University of Washington griddler.

Hans (Hitler) Shulz, a loyal nazi German and a newcomer to Medford, will meet Taro Ito, the popular Japanese, in the middle bout. Shulz is said to be a rough and tough customer who can wrestle clean if he so chooses. He has been in the United States for about eight years and will weigh about 220 pounds at ring time.

Another newcomer is Billy Venable of Texas who will face Joe Smolinski of Poland in the opener. Venable is reported to be a fast and clever matman who resorts to dirty stuff only when facing a man of Smolinski's character.

The card will get under way at 8:30 p. m. promptly.

Craters Squeeze Out 12-11 Win Over Bend As Grants Pass Wins

The big bat of Vernon Leif boomed in Medford Sunday and the Craters took a 12 to 11 win from the Bend Shamrocks in 11 innings. The score was tied at 11-11 in the ninth and in the 11th Leif stepped to the plate with one man on second and sent a drive to center field just as he did against Crescent City the day before.

Bill Calvert pitched the first seven innings and was nicked for 14 hits, 10 runs, five walks and three hit batsmen. He was relieved by Harry Leggett, who gave up four bingles. Snider, a big south-paw, went the distance for the Shamrocks and was touched for 18 safeties.

A single into center field by Vernon Leif with two down in the last of the ninth Sunday afternoon in Medford gave the Craters a 6 to 5 victory over the Crescent City Merchants in the third and deciding game of the Shaughnessy playoff series between the teams.

Virgil Haynes, a late season recruit from the ranks of Ashland-Talent, started the game for the Craters and worked hard for four innings during which he allowed no hits, but his two errors let a pair of runs across the platter. Harry Leggett took over where Haynes left off and allowed three hits and three runs during the remainder of the game.

Deo started on the mound for the Merchants and gave up eight hits in seven frames until he was replaced by Howe in the eighth, who yielded but one bingle and was charged with the defeat. The victory gave Medford two games out of the three playoff series and four out of five meetings for the season.

Junior High Classes Get Under Way Here

By HARLALEE WILSON It was an entirely changed junior high the students entered Tuesday morning. In spite of the novelty and newness of it all, there is a vacant place left without Miss Myers and the other retired teachers. We are fortunate in having someone as capable as Mr. Rogers to take the helm.

What a mixup (for the best, of course) in the seating arrangement in the study hall. Instead of alphabetical class arrangement as before, we are sprinkled throughout the hall to avoid congestion at the doors.

It must be human nature, or just plain mischievousness, but now that we can talk in the halls we can't seem to find anything to say.

Among the many changes was the abolishment of detention. Oh, happy day! Thanks to Mr. Rogers and faculty.

Rah! Rah! Football! Our brand new coach, Al Simpson, called for the first football turnout Tuesday after school to hand out equipment.

Superintendent Norby has put special stress on the work of Miss Hill and Mr. Koehler, our new music and art teachers. We also have a new librarian, Miss Conover; a new English teacher, Miss Hogan, and a new coach.

Church of the Nazarene E. E. Wordsworth, Minister Fourth and C Streets

"The church where you never are a stranger." Sunday school, 9:45 a. m., T. S. Wiley, superintendent. Dr. C. B. Widmeyer says "Building better boys is better than mending men." Parent, is your boy attending Sunday school? If not we invite him to our school.

Morning worship, 11 o'clock. Sermon by the pastor; theme, "Palm Tree Saints." Second in the series.

Young people's devotional hour, 7 p. m. At 8 p. m. the Rev. and Mrs. Ira N. Taylor, furloughed missionaries from Peru will be guest speakers. They also will present pictures of Nazarene missionary work in Peru. Welcome to all.
