4-H Club Members Try for Trip Award To Stock Exposition

Striving to win the trip to the Pacific International Livestock exposition in Portland this fall, sponsored by the First National Bank of Portland, 4-H club members of Jackson county are completing special projects and preparing entries for county and state 4-H competition. As for the last three years, choice of the boy and girl from each county in Oregon for this three-day visit in Portland will be based on outstanding leadership and achievement in 4-H club work.

According to local 4-H club leaders, the reports of last year's trip brought back by Marvin Poyer and Betty Lue Reich, winners of the 1938 award from this county, have heightened competition to fever pitch. The trip includes daily visits to the exposition grounds, sight-seeing in Portland and special entertainment by the state-wide bank, which pays all transportation and expenses. Last year 74 boys and girls of Oregon enjoyed this visit to Portland and the same number is expected this year.

H. C. Seymour, Oregon 4-H club director, again has been appointed general chairman of judging and awards. Local judges will be the county agent, county superintendent of schools and Eugene Thorndike, manager of the Medford branch of the First National Bank of Portland. Dates for the visit this year are Oct. 11, 12 and 13.

Railroad Pushing Scenic Shasta Route

Through the medium of colored motion pictures, Leith F. Abbott, advertising agent for the Southern Pacific lines in Portland, will boost the Shasta rail route through here. The pictures will depict Lathia park, Crater Lake, Oregon Caves and many other southern Oregon scenic attractions in connection with Mt. Shasta, Mt. Hood and Mt. Rainier publicity.

Abbott, a former Ashland resident and graduate of the local high school, said this week that the 1939 passenger traffic in the northwest has shown a considerable increase. Abbott was visiting his parents while here, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Abbott.

EXAMINER HERE TODAY

An examiner of operators and chauffeurs will be in the Ashland city hall from 11 a. m. to 5 p. m. today, Sept. 15, to issue licenses and permits to drive cars.
