Junior High Eleven Readies for Opening Contest with J'ville

Al Simpson, new coach at Ashland Junior high school, is quite happy this week over the prospects for his 1939 football machine. Simpson has arranged his boys into playing positions and states that all are showing a marked interest in the game and also an ability to grasp situations. Tough scrimmages every evening gradually are rounding the boys into shape for a hard schedule which Simpson is attempting to arrange.

Altamont Junior high of Klamath Falls, former bitter rival of the local school, has been eliminated as possible opponents this season as they have incorporated with the Klamath school system.

Simpson announced his opening game for Friday, Sept. 22, with Leonard (Pat) Patterson's Jacksonville high school squad there. Patterson has not yet stated what his gridiron prospects are but is said to be looking forward to a fairly successful season in his first year as coach.

Mad Pole Will Meet Nazi Meanie Monday

Promoter Mack Lillard has announced that Joe Smolinski and Hans (Hitler) Shulz, respective Polish and German wrestling villains, will clash in next Monday night's main event in the Medford armory. Both showed a fierce willingness to meet, Lillard said.

A former heavyweight champion of the world, Dave Levin, will make his first southern Oregon appearance against George (Wildcat) Wilson in the middle event. Levin, a 195-pound clean-wrestling Jew, won the heavyweight title from Ali Baba four years ago, but himself was beaten soon afterward. He is one of the best-known matmen in the game.

Billy Venable and Taro Ito will meet in the opening bout, which will get under way at 8:30 p. m.

SOCE Gets $3510 Student-Aid Coin

Of the $164,700 allotted to Oregon colleges by the National Youth Administration, Southern Oregon College of Education will receive $3510, it was announced in Portland yesterday.

Students seeking aid will apply to their colleges, where officials will assign them to projects. Applicants must be between 16 and 24 years of age, and are paid on a work-performed basis.

BUYS HELMS RANCH

You may be guilty of halitosis (bad breath) this very minute, and yet be unaware of it. That's the insidious thing about this offensive condition, so frequently due to food fermentation in the mouth.

You yourself may not recognize it... but everyone you come in contact with does.

Listerine Antiseptic halts such fermentation, said by some authorities to be a major cause of mouth odors, and overcomes the odors themselves. So why risk annoying and offending others? Why hurt yourself socially and in business?

It is so easy to guard against offending by gargling with Listerine, the safe antiseptic. Your breath becomes sweeter and more agreeable. If you value your job and your friends, use Listerine Antiseptic regularly. Lambert Pharmaceutical Company, St. Louis, Mo.

HINDSIGHT ON SPORTS

By I TOLD YOU SO

IF SUET WILL DO IT, Coach Al Simpson's junior high football stalwarts should enjoy a to-be season this fall. Several of Al's behemoths would make the beef trust look like vegetarians, they're so ponderous.

Coach Simpson is no Mickey Mouse himself, but when he crowds his way into a huddle he has to duck to keep from bumping his head on their elbows. One bulky player passed the six-foot mark along about the time he shed his milk teeth. And his weight? Well, it reads something like the Polish casualty list as announced from Berlin.

According to the knothole patrol which has been scouting Al's aggregation, the juniors should be able to hold their own against Pat Patterson's Jacksonville and a stiff head wind next Friday afternoon when they play their first contest. And if the well-blubbered forward wall can get to leaning toward their opponents' goal it will require an anti-tank gun to stop their smashing lurch.

Coach Simp, as he already is affectionately known by every junior high student in the community, has been drilling his boys on fundamentals, which the lads seem able to comprehend and execute. Given more experience, they probably will provide tough competition for a number of junior high outfits around these parts.

Al's only real problem this season should be supplying drayage to out-of-town games for his juvenile tonnage.

Last week-end a coach's convention was held in The Miner office and the session required the steady application of a mop, two sponges and all of Arch Barksdale's dry towels. The place sounded like the maternity ward of Community hospital with dinner an hour late.

It seems that the coaches had something to wait about, too. Leonard Patterson from J'ville started the black clouds gathering when he related how in his entire football turnout of 16 boys, but three of them had ever before seen a pigskin off the hoof. And (sniff, sniff!) along come three Medford coaches—Bill Bowerman, Russ Acheson and Riney Cook—with a city-slicker song and dance about enticing them away to Medford.

"Guess I'll have to put the Missus in a suit and squeeze myself into pads to make a quorum if they succeed," cried Pat.

"You aint—er, haven't—seen trouble at all," chimed in Leroy

Clarke between sobs. "Down at Rogue River we've got only one player who ever heard of the game, and Medford already has subsidized him into moving to the city of princes!"

Coach Simpson, who had contented himself with wringing towels for his unfortunate comrades, only occasionally broke the silence with salty splashes on the brimming floor.

When told of the session by Hindsight, Willie Hulén of the Medford M.T. sports department laughed and laughed. Then, in more serious attitude, he propounded his only clinching argument in justification of Medford's grasping athletic tactics: "That's nothin'—y'oughtta see how Klamath Fall's combing THEIR territory!"

At that point Hindsight threw up his hands in despair and was pleased to note a mug of suds in one of 'em. You just can't argue with that kind of logic!

Grants Pass Grinds Craters 8-0 Sunday

Steve Crippen and the Grants Pass Merchants gave the Medford Craters a surprise 8 to 0 defeat in Grants Pass Sunday in the first of two out of three games for the Southern Oregon Baseball league's Shaughnessy playoff finals. The Merchants led Hoosier Hoffard's gang in their first trip to the plate and were never threatened.

Six Crater errors and Bill Furlong's blow-up in the first inning didn't help the Craters any. Crippen was charged with the win and Furlong was the losing pitcher. Batteries: Grants Pass—Crippen to Woods; Medford—Furlong, Rathke to G. Gitzen.

The two teams will clash in Medford next Sunday.
