L. O. (OTTO) CASTER
Democratic Candidate for County Commissioner
Primaries May 17
WILL STRIVE TO BE FAIR AND IMPARTIAL TO ALL THE COUNTY
I came to Oregon in 1884 when a small boy, with my parents, and have lived here all the time since, except three years when I resided in California. I have farmed and raised cattle the past 35 years. I am married and have raised a family of three girls and one boy. These are my qualifications for Commissioner:
Served as road supervisor for six years, and worked on roads off and on during the past 30 years. Served as commissioner from 1935 until 1939.
