ROSE PIRATES WILL INVADE A-T'S SUNDAY

THE ROSEBURG PIRATES will be making their first appearance on the Ashland high school baseball diamond in three years when they clash with the Ashland-Talent nine at 2:30 p. m. Sunday, May 12, in a Southern Oregon league game.

Little is known of the strength of the Douglas county club since their opener with Medford last week was rained out. However, they are said to carry a fiery bunch of youngsters who play ball with enthusiasm. For a number of years Roseburg has been a top-notch outfit in Douglas county leagues and is returning to the Southern Oregon loop after a two-year absence.

Al Simpson, practice manager of the A-T's, says that he believes he has ironed out the fielding weaknesses which contributed to the 8-3 setback at the hands of Crescent City last Sunday. Nig DiSordi, who took the mound against the coast team with little practice behind him, following a broken leg injury which kept him out of play for most of the winter, has been working hard all week and is pronounced in fit condition and probably will get the starting call against the Indians.

Dick Skeeters has the receiving job cut and dried. Delbert (Tiny) Jones will be a cinch for first base, and remainder of the A-T lineup will round out something like this: Collin Moore on second, Howard Jandreau at third, Bob Strickland at shortstop, and Don Montgomery, Ed Leaming and Charlie Warren in the field. Simpson, Eddie Joanis, Skinny Wilson, George Bullion will be on hand for utility jobs.

In other league games Medford entertains Grants Pass and Gold Hill goes to Crescent City.

● The play entitled "The Dude Ranch" was presented by the seniors of Talent high in the school gym last week. It was a western comedy full of romance and excitement. The school orchestra played between acts. A large crowd attended.

● Roy Hord left Tuesday evening for San Francisco to obtain surgical treatment for his hip, which was fractured in December.

● A road show company is presenting a series of motion pictures and vaudeville acts in the club house this week. The first show was given Tuesday evening, and all are being well attended.

● Mrs. Roy Hord was taken to Hilt hospital Wednesday evening for treatment of complications following an attack of mumps.

BATTLE ROYAL ON ARMORY BILL

Another seven-man battle royal awaits the Medford armory wrestling fans Monday night when Promoter Mack Lillard brings back two old favorites and two new faces. The old standbys who will return are Pete Belcastro, away last Monday, and Prince Mehalikis, the turban-wearing Arabian. The Black Panther, big Negro from Los Angeles, and Al Ferona, Italian who has been campaigning successfully in Portland, will be the new faces.

The others who will complete the list are Ernie Piluso, Bulldog Jackson and Frankie Clemens. The Black Panther is a clean wrestling gent who will bring a long string of mat victories with him. Ferona is inclined to be rough and can hold his own in just about any kind of company.

The free-for-all will act as matchmaker for the evening's card. The first man eliminated will have worked for nothing, since he will be paid only his traveling expenses. The second and third out will return to open the card and so on throughout the program.

The melee will get under way at 8:30 o'clock sharp Monday night, May 13.

● Charles Skeeters and a number of his logging crew spent Saturday fishing in Rogue river.

● C. M. Litwiler of Ashland was a business caller in Talent Monday.
