ASHLAND MEN TO ADDRESS MEET

Mayor T. S. Wiley, E. C. Biegel, J. Q. Adams, Councilman O. F. Carson and City Attorney Frank Van Dyke will represent Ashland at the 15th annual League of Oregon Cities convention May 22 to 24 in Seaside.

Ashland also will be represented in discussions when Biegel, manager of the electric utility here and city superintendent, will speak on "Operations Under a Contract Electrical Supply," and by Adams, who will talk on "Proper Accounting Treatment of Inter-Fund and Inter-Budget Item Transfers."

Other city problems arising from rapid population shifts and increased demands for municipal services coupled with declining revenues will be considered in open forum discussions by city officials in attendance.

1410 Grads Output Of Ashland High Since Year of 1891

Since 1891 1410 students have been graduated from Ashland senior high school, according to material compiled by the office of Theo J. Norby, school superintendent. The name of every graduate since 1891 has been kept on record in the superintendent's office and in that first year records were kept three seniors made up the graduation class.

Number of graduates for each succeeding year are listed as follows, with the exception of 1903, when no students graduated because that year the school was changed from a three-year institution to a four-year school.

1891	3	1916	33
1892	8	1917	49
1893	10	1918	46
1894	13	1919	49

1914	36	1939	77
1915	38	1940	100

Those of Bellview graduating from senior high school this year include Nancy Ring, Rosemary Bell, Eunice Kincaid, Barbara Moore and Dale Williams. Those moving up from Junior high include Bobby Hinch, Charlotte Hamilton, Jeanette Talent, Dale Anderson, Ruth Walker, Josephine Peachey and Veda Williams.

Jack Duane, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Pfeifer, celebrated his seventh birthday anniversary Saturday afternoon with a party. The little guests were Lois and Charles Zickefoose, Dale Blunck, Jerry Montgomery, Lynn and Sally Tripp, Marjorie Schultz, George Baylor and Carl Cowdrey of Talent, and Sally Ann Moffett of Medford. After a trip to the Lithia park in Ashland, ice cream and cake were served at the home of Mrs. Pfeifer, assisted by Mrs. Clyde Moffett. Jack received many lovely gifts and a good time was enjoyed by all.

Ashland-Talent To Play 3 More Home Games in First Half

The Ashland-Talent baseball club has five home games in the first half of the 1940 schedule, including the two already played here. The remainder of the first-half schedule follows:

- May 19
Ashland-Talent at Grants Pass. Crescent City at Roseburg. Medford at Gold Hill (May play night game in Medford May 17.)
- May 26
Ashland-Talent in Medford. Crescent City in Grants Pass. Roseburg in Gold Hill.
- June 2
Gold Hill in Ashland-Talent (may play in Medford night of May 31.) Grants Pass in Roseburg. Medford in Crescent City.
- June 9
Crescent City in Ashland-Talent. Roseburg in Medford. Grants Pass in Gold Hill.
- June 16
Ashland-Talent in Roseburg. Medford in Grants Pass. Crescent City in Gold Hill. (One of the latter two games may be played in Medford on the night of June 13 or 14.)
- June 21
Gold Hill in Medford (night).
- June 23
Grants Pass in Ashland-Talent (may play in Medford night of June 20.) Roseburg in Crescent City.

Encouraged A-T's Off to Grants Pass For Week-End Tilt

Ashland-Talent's baseball club will take to the road for the first time in regular league play Sunday, May 19, when they travel to Grants Pass to tangle with the Merchants.

Since Skinny Wilson went the entire distance to win the game against Roseburg last Sunday he probably will get the starting call, with Nig DiSordi and Wayne Combest on hand to back him up if necessary. The infield might get a shakeup after workouts this week but at present stands the same as in the past with Skeeters catching, Jones at first, Neale at second, Jandreau or DiSordi on third, Strickland playing shortstop, and Joanis, Leaming and Montgomery in the outfield.

The Merchants took the A-T's in a pre-season tilt and now are reported to be even stronger with the addition of Jack Cook to their pitching staff.

Other Southern Oregon league games send Crescent City to Roseburg and Medford to Gold Hill.

Final Round-Up Adds 25 to Census Count

Census Enumerators P. D. McDougal and Mrs. Frances Carter completed their final count Monday and Tuesday when an additional 25 persons were counted at the Chamber of Commerce office.

Although exact population figures will not be compiled for some time, McDougal estimated that the 5000 mark already has been reached here.

Juniors Winding Up Spring Sports Play

The Junior high school spring athletic program goes into the final stages Friday afternoon, May 17, when the Ashland tennis squad entertains the Medford Juniors on the local courts at 3 o'clock. Already the two teams have met three times with Medford taking two matches and Ashland grabbing only one. Coach Al Simpson of the Ashlanders announces that his club is in the peak of condition and anxious to even the series with their bitter rivals.

The 8-a twos copped the inter-mural baseball championship at Junior high when they stopped the band two out of three games, the third one ending in a 2-2 tie. Those composing the title nine

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hash, Austie Barron, Mrs. Kate Neil, Ben Bowers, Bill Grow and Mr. and Mrs. Loffen enjoyed a picnic in the Dead Indian district Sunday.
